
The Methods of Mr. Sellyer

To one lady "Golden Dreams" was sold as exactly the reading for a holiday, to another as the very book to read after a holiday; another bought it as a book for a rainy day, and a fourth as the right sort of reading for a fine day. "The Monkeys" was sold as a sea story, a land story, a story of the jungle, and a story of the mountains, and it was put at a price corresponding to Mr. Sellyer's estimate of the purchaser.

At last, after a busy two hours, the store grew empty for a moment.
