

Polling Districts No. 13. Douglas Colter, all his work on his private road.

Polling District No. 14. William McKenzie two days on his road.

We further recommend in the matter of tenders for opening the draw bridge at Wallace Bridge that John Copp, who agreed to open said draw bridge for the year 1899 for 48c each time of opening be accepted.

Henry Hunter,
John E Roach,
John Hennessy,
John Turple,
D. M. Jackson.

---

9

Report of Committee on Poor.

---

Your Committee on Poor Accounts beg to submit the following report :—

| Dis. No. |  | $   | ct <sup>s</sup> |
|----------|--|------|-----------------|
| " 1      | Asks for support of Poor for the year 1899 | 1250 | 00              |
| 2        | " " " "                                    | 225  | 00              |
| 3        | " " " "                                    | 150  | 00              |
| 4        | " " " "                                    | 75   | 00              |
| 5        | " " " "                                    | 700  | 00              |
| 6        | " " " "                                    | 175  | 00              |
| 7        | " " " "                                    | 250  | 00              |
| 8        | " " " "                                    | 160  | 00              |
| 9        | " " " "                                    | 90   | 00              |