DRUMBO,

A post village in the Township of Blenheim, 12th lot, 7th Concession, on the line of the Buffalo and Lake Huron Railway, 18 miles from Woodstock. A large grain and mercantile business is carried on. The country surrounding it is very rich and fertile—the farms are all well improved. It has daily mails. There are now in the village several stores, a good foundry, machine shop and planing mill, one large tannery, owned by Robt. Kelly, who manufactures every description of leather; two blacksmith and waggon shops, shoe, cabinet, harness and carpenter shops, several agencies; three hotels, of which the Central Hotel, by John B. Capron, is well kept; three churches and an excellent school. Population 600.

CHURCHES.—Baptist Church, Rev. Mr. Booker, pastor; Primitive Methodist, Wesleyan Methodist, no stated minister; Canada Presbyterian, Rev. Mr. McQuarrie. The Church of England congregation is about erecting a brick edifice.—Rev. Mr. Bartlett is the incumbent.

One of the largest Stocks of Ready-Made Clothing in Ingersoll at the Golden Fleece—W. Watson, Thames St., Ingersoll.
