

with people, when an interesting concert was given and about seventy dollars realized. Our Sunday congregations are good, and our church auxiliaries are increasing in attendance and interest. We have the machinery, but O for the power to make it go. "Not by might nor by power but by my Spirit saith the Lord."
Nov. 13th, 1903. A. T. DYKEMAN.

From June till September DOAKTOWN, N. B. 1st we labored with Rev. J. A. Marple. Over forty were added to the various churches. Bro. Marple responded to a call in the North West. We assumed the pastorate here. We find ourselves comfortably settled in one of the best parsonages in the convention. We have attached a good sized barn to the end of the wood house. We have also built a nice wire fence about the ground, and now a furnace is nearly ready for the heating of the parsonage. The water pipes are in, and in a few days the water will be in the house. But this is not all that the people have been doing. On crusade day the women held a public meeting, and over seven dollars of a thank offering taken. Then some of our Sunday school workers arranged for a service on Rally day. The church was packed. The decorations elaborate, and entertainment excellent. The offering, $10.00, provided hymn books for the pews. On the 27th of Oct. Miss F. M. Rogers of St. John delighted a good congregation with her well rendered readings. $16.60 was received. On Nov. 3rd Rev. A. J. Vining gave a very able address on the North West. In pledges and cash $118.00 was taken. Lastly, on November 5th, the church, birthday party in the parsonage. Although the rain fell in torrents a good number came and spent a very enjoyable evening, and nearly enough has been realized to pay for the furnace in the parsonage.

As no quarterly meeting JEMSEG, N. B. was held in June we will submit our half yearly report. We feel that we can sound a note of praise and thanksgiving to our Heavenly Father for the prosperity and success of our church and Sabbath school. Twenty-one new members have been added to our church through the faithful labours of our pastor, Rev. W. J. Gordon. Our prayer-meetings and conferences have been well kept up and much interest shown. Bro. Isaac Guter a faithful and devoted member has been added to the staff of deacons. One important branch of our church work is our Sabbath-school, which is in a very prosperous condition, which is largely due to the faithful efforts of our worthy superintendent, Dea. J. C. Colwell. There is an average attendance of about 80 scholars, which we hope may prove a lasting benefit to the youth of our land. Although progress has been made still we are not satisfied but are hoping that our eyes may be more fully opened and our hearts made willing to do our best for the advancement of the cause of Christ
Mr. J. DYKEMAN.

Our work is encouraging. SUSSEX, N. B. Last Sunday I baptized two young ladies. Our preaching and social services are well attended. We had with us Rev. Geo. Richardson who preached at our service with much acceptance. He is a genial Christian, a man of strong and clear theological views, and an excellent preacher. He has preached for us a number of times during the summer.

This is a branch of Moncton CHERRYFIELD, N. B. church. We enjoyed four weeks in this section. A number started on the Christian journey, Pastor Hutchinson baptized two last Sunday, two others have offered who will follow later. This being a mixed community some may unite with other churches. We found the people kind they have just finished repairing the church to the extent of $55, a new foundation and other repairs making it warm and neat. May the Lord greatly bless this part of his vineyard is our earnest prayer.
GEO. H. BRAMAN.

I am closing a pastorate here HAVELOCK, N. B. of nearly four years. The work has prospered during this time. Unanimity has prevailed in the church. The Lord indeed blessed our united efforts. There is now a strong and willing band of young people in the church to cheer the heart of the pastor. The coming pastor will find a united and hopeful people. The Lord calls us to Hopewell where we begin work Dec. 1. Our future address will be Hopewell Cape.
Nov. 12. J. W. BROWN.

We are sending out a few more addressed envelopes in the papers with single wrappers this week, and hope those who receive them will inclose payments for their paper in them at once, as we need funds to keep the paper out of debt, and we hope that those who received them before and have not used them will do so before the next month comes in. We are very thankful to all those of our subscribers who have sent in payments of late. Let others do likewise, and relieve us of anxiety.

Ministerial Record.

Rev. J. B. Champion of Earville, N. Y., has received and accepted an unanimous call to the pastorate of the Baptist church in Geneva, the same State. Geneva is a city of 12,000 inhabitants and growing fast. It is a college town, and the Baptist church is in a vigorous condition. The Earville Standard says of Mr. Champion: He has endeared himself to the church and society and is one of the strongest and most forceful preachers the church has ever had. His departure will be very deeply regretted, but no one could wish to keep him from so promising an opening as Geneva. Mr. Champion has many friends in these provinces, who will be glad to hear of his enlarged opportunities for usefulness.
Rev. Ira Smith has accepted the charge of Clinton Avenue church, Detroit, Mich.

Rev. H. N. Parry of N. S. is called to the pastorate of Elgin, Albert Co., N. B. Since receiving the call he has died, suddenly, from heart failure.

Rev. E. H. Howe has resigned charge of the church at Freeport, N. S. It would be well for some of our pastorless churches in N. B. to give him a call. He is a good preacher and pastor.

Rev. W. J. Blakney, who now lives in Malden, Massachusetts is very ill with indigestion, and catarrh of the head and throat. He has been a great sufferer for a long time. His Dr. holds out no hope of his recovery. May sustaining grace be given him.

Home Missions.

Will all the missionaries in New Brunswick forward reports before the close of the month so as to be in time for the meeting of the Board on St. John, Dec. 1st?

Also, if any of the churches have second hand Canadian Baptist Hymnals or Sabbath School Books out of use, would some interested brother or sister drop me a card in order that I might arrange to collect them in my tours among the churches? I have already supplied several schools with literature of this kind, and find that such help is much appreciated. A great door and effectual is opening to us in this direction.

Died.

BELVEA - At Coldstream, Carleton county, Nov. 3rd, peacefully closing her eyes upon this world to enter into the rest beyond, Ella E., aged 41 years, youngest daughter of Harford and the late J. J. Belyea, passed to be with Jesus and the loved ones gone before. Patient and true-tiful, of her short life she spent almost three years in suffering. But the suffering is ended, the fever is crossed and the child is safe home.

McDONALD - At Jemseg, N. B., on Oct. 21st, Amy V., the beloved wife of W. H. McDonald, aged 22. This dear young sister had been ill for some months with that evil disease consumption. Her sufferings were borne with unflinching patience; she was quite resigned to the prospect of early departure from this sinful world, and, indeed, longed to be at home with the Lord. Though so young, she had been for several years a consistent and devoted follower of Christ, having been baptized by the Rev. C. W. Townsend June 21st, 1886. The esteem in which she was held was shown by the unusually large attendance at the funeral, conspicuous in the procession were about 70 scholars of the Sunday School headed by their superintendent, Deacon J. D. Colwell. The service was conducted by the Rev. W. J. Gordon (assisted by the Rev. A. B. McDonald, the former preaching an appropriate and impressive sermon from Rev. 12:12. The beloved husband, parents, brothers and sister, have the sympathy of the entire community.
