MARKET REVIEW AND FORECAST

Starting, Monday, April 27. - Although slightly delayed in the market, Toronto, farmers are now active with their crops in Eastern Canada. As there is a fall in prices of produce markets as deliveries fall off when spring work starts. Business in general is a fair with business at the date last year. There is a tendency in many quarters to enquire into the causes of the present depression and thus be in a position to prevent a re-occurrence of business depression. In farmers' markets the most noticeable result of seeding operations is the jump in the price of potatoes. From now until after seeding the quotations on this crop will be high and the price of interest are the apparent surplus in the butter market and the slight recession in the cattle market.

Cheese quotations have also received slightly new prices. Delayed in the market, 15½c to 16c; old large, 16½c; twins, 16c.

Quotations on the horse exchange average about as follows: Heavy drafts, $220 to $250; lighter draft, $200 to $250; heavy express horses, $150 to $200; light express, $125 to $175; roadsters, $140 to $180; serviceable, $80 to $100.
