

he purposes to build an addition to his hotel.

STRATFORD, ONT.—Building permits have been issued as follows: J. D. Woods, storehouse on South street; Mrs. D. Halpin, residence, Ontario street; S. Seldon, residence, Rebecca street; R. Offord, residence, Water street; Wm. Elligsen, residence, Centre street.—The Mooney Biscuit & Candy Company intend enlarging their factory, corner of Downie and Milton streets.—William Lawrence will receive tenders up to March 30th for $115,229 4/5 per cent. city debentures.

VANCOUVER, B.C.—A new building for the Children's Aid Society will replace the one burnt on Davie street.—Honeyman & Curtis, architects, have prepared plans for a new church for St. John's congregation, corner of Broughton and Comox streets, to cost $50,000.—Sullivan & Considine are making arrangements for the erection of a new theatre to replace the People's theatre; cost about $100,000.—The British Columbia Sugar Refining Company will build a large six story warehouse, cost about $60,000.

MONTREAL, QUE.—Tenders are being received for the Mark Fisher Sons & Company's new warehouse, corner Craig street and Victoria square. Alphonse Piche, architect.—Marchand & Maxwell, architects, have been asked to prepare plans for a Lookout building for the Mountain.—D. R. Brown, architect, has prepared plans for the new building for Desbartes & Company on Lagache-tiere street, to be five stories, brick, 65 x 108 feet, pressed brick with sandstone trimmings, low pressure steam heating, passenger and freight elevators, sprinkler system, etc.—Building permits have been granted as follows: Miss Rose Pepin, one house, brick and stone, Duluth ave., $3,000; A. Desroches, one house, brick and stone, St. Lawrence street, $5,000; Henri Lemieux, one house, wood and brick, St. Antoine ave., $4,250; Stanislas Lemieux, one house, wood and brick, St. Antoine ave., $4,250.—A new school will be built for St. Michael's parish. M. J. Walsh, M.L.A., is interested.

WINNIPEG, MAN.—J. C. McGreevy and W. J. Donovan have sold the building on Market street occupied by Tees & Perse, which will be reconstructed into a first-class hotel.—F. R. Evans is taking tenders this week for a residence on Dufferin avenue.—The Winnipeg Grain & Produce Exchange are asking for plans and tenders for their new building corner Lombard and Rorie streets. The date limit is April 10th.—James Fowler will have the Brunswick Hotel replaced by a steel building to cost $125,000.—Mrs. H. E. M. Crawford purposes building a residence on Roslyn road.—The Council have decided to purchase a site on Rupert street for the new police station.—J. H. Cadham, architect, has just taken tenders for erection of a brick and stone warehouse.—The Myers Iron Fence Company have purchased a site on Chambers street, Elmwood, on which they will erect a two-story factory.—H. C. Stone, architect, has plans prepared for the new theatre building on Smith street for C. E. Walker. It will be a three-story stone building, 185 x 84 feet, cost $175,000. Mr. Stone is also preparing plans for a store and hotel building on the adjoining site to cost $225,000.—John Woodman, architect, will receive tenders up to March 31st for construction of a brick and stone boiler and engine room, with brick chimney, for Hudson Bay Company.

TORONTO, ONT.—C. F. Wagner, architect, will receive tenders up to March 30th for the erection of a dwelling on Broadview avenue.—R. J. Edwards, architect, has taken tenders for a brick house on Oriel avenue, also one on Woodlawn avenue.—Copeland & Fairbairn, real estate agents, have recently sold property on Kendall avenue to Sidney Small on which several fine residences will be erected. They also have sold a site on Jamieson avenue to W. B. Ecclestone, of the T. Eaton Company, on which he will build a residence. The same dealers have sold the property at 55 St. Vincent street to A. Rafelman, of Ottawa, who will build a large apartment house thereon.—Sexton & Company, contractors, have purchased property on Teraulay street on which to build a large wood-turning factory.—A. R. Denison, architect, is preparing plans for rebuilding the McCann Milling Company's buildings recently burned, cost about $250,000.—Lawrence Shea, of the Windsor Hotel, will erect a large hotel on the northwest corner of Church and Richmond streets.—The James Bay Railway Company are procuring property near the Don, between Eastern avenue and Front street, for a site for large freight sheds.—The Board of Control have authorized the extension of the palm house in Allan Gardens, at a cost of $2,500.—City Engineer Rust has been instructed to prepare a plan for Bathurst street bridge for the extension of street car lines to Exhibition grounds.—The Civic Island Committee have recommended a new bath house for the Island to cost $5,000.—Tenders will be received by the Board of Control up to April 3rd for construction of the following asphalt pavements: Northcote avenue, from Queen street to Afion avenue, and on John street from King to Queen; bitul this pavement, Casimir street from St. Patrick to 193 feet north, and on Park road from Bloor street to Collier; tar macadam pavement, Bartlett street from Bloor to the north city limit; vitrified block track allowance on River street from King to Queen; also a number of concrete sidewalks.—An option has been secured on property near Toronto University as a site for a new Knox College.—The property at 56 and 58 Yonge street has been purchased by John Hines, who intends to reconstruct the buildings for hotel purposes. Plans are now being prepared.—J. A. Ellis, architect, is preparing plans for three stores on Bloor street for Waite & Griffith, and for houses on St. Clarens ave., Crescent road, Woodlawn ave. and Broadview ave. He also has plans for a white goods warehouse, to cost $40,000.—F. S. Baker, architect, is preparing plans for a tobacco store in the new Traders' Bank building for G. W. Muller.—The Bank of Montreal have purchased the property at 173 to 175 1/2 Yonge street, on which it is understood they will soon erect a first-class bank building.—Building permits have been issued as follows: S. Caldecott, 2-story and attic brick dwelling, Woodlawn ave., near Yonge street, cost $4,500.—T. Cruttenden, 2 1/2-story brick dwelling, Broadview ave., near Wolfrey, cost $5,500; Mrs. Jean Grafton, pair 2 1/2-story brick and stone dwellings, Rathnally ave., near Cottingham street, cost $6,000; D. H. Atkinson, pair 2-story brick and stone dwellings, 6 and 8 Atkins ave., cost $4,000; C. H. Rudd, 2-story brick and stone dwelling, Crawford street, near Queen, cost $2,500; Mrs. K. Davidson, 2-story brick dwelling, Barton ave., cost $3,000; J. J. Fraser, pair 2-story rough-cast dwellings, St. Clarens ave., near Wallace, cost $4,000; E. W. McNeill, 2 1/2-story brick dwelling, Springhurst ave., near King street, cost $4,000; T. J. Dolan, 2-story stone and brick store and dwelling, Dundas street, near Davenport court, cost $2,750; Standard Bank, 2-story brick and stone bank and dwelling, corner Yonge and Charles streets, cost $3,000; Charles Bulley, pair 2-story brick dwellings, 29-31 Withrow ave., cost $5,000; Charles Bulley, 2-story and attic brick dwelling, No. 27 Withrow ave., cost $2,400; J. Martin, pair 2-story and attic stone and attic dwellings, Davenport court road, near Bloor street, cost $5,000; Dawson & Chipchase, 2-story brick and stone dwelling, Belmont street, near Davenport road, cost $2,800; John Marr, pair 2 1/2-story brick and stone dwellings on Conduit street, cost $4,400; Wm. L. Rome, three 2 1/2-story brick and stone dwellings O'Hara ave., near Queen street, cost $6,000; J.A. Hogarth, 2-story brick dwelling, Hogarth ave., near Broadview, cost $2,500; Wm. Hogan, 2-story and attic brick dwelling, Macpherson ave., cost $5,000; T. J. Madill, 2-story and attic brick dwelling, Summer-ville ave., cost $3,300; C. Scadding, 2-story and attic brick store, corner of Leuty ave. and Queen street, cost $3,400; John S. Lucas, 3-story brick store, Queen street, near Victoria, cost $10,000; Mrs. F. B. Whittemore, 2-story brick dwelling, Hawthorne ave., near Dale, cost $3,500; T. Gibson, pair 2-story brick dwellings, Lansdowne ave., near Bloor street, cost $4,000; A. M. Grantham, 1-story and basement brick dwelling, Balmoral ave., near Poplar Plains road, cost $6,000; R. Saunders, pair 2-story and attic brick dwelling, Concord ave., near Northumberland street, cost $5,000; J.C. Scott, 2 1/2-story brick dwelling, Hawthorne ave., near Elm, cost $5,000; J. Wallace, 2-story and attic brick dwelling, Close ave., near Springhurst, cost $6,000; James Cairns, 2-story stone and brick store and dwelling, 1289 Bloor street, cost $3,000; J. T. V. May, 2 1/2-story stone and brick dwelling, Sherbourne street, near South Drive, cost $5,000; W. E. Booth, pair 2 1/2-story brick dwelling, Gibson ave., near Yonge street, cost $5,000; E. G. Switzer, pair 2-story brick dwelling, Grace street, near Arthur, cost $4,000; Teller Mfg. Co., 3-story and basement brick factory, Pearl street, near Duncan, cost $18,000; Mrs. J. K. Piper, pair 2 1/2-story brick and stone dwellings, 176-178 Spadina road, cost $7,000; H. Lavkin, pair 2 1/2-story brick and stone dwellings, Earinbridge street, near Brock ave., cost $5,000; James Burford, pair 2 1/2-story brick dwellings, Bathurst street, near Dupont, cost $5,000.—The Board of Control will receive tenders up to April 17th for the construction and supply of seven steel pontoons and seven wooden pontoons; also up to May 21st for the supply of cast steel pipes and specials, cast iron specials, pipes and castings for high pressure fire system.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

ARNPRIOR, ONT.—Shirt factory building: S. R. Rudd, contractor.

GUELPH, ONT.—Sewer pipe for city: Francis Hyde & Company, Montreal, Que.

WELLAND, ONT.—Store building, corner Muir and Park streets: W. A. Kelsey, contractor.

ANTIGONISH, N. S.—Building for Royal Bank of Canada: Rhodes, Curry & Co., contractors, Amherst, N.S.

INVERNESS, N.S.—Roman Catholic church: Dixon & Falconer, contractors, Sydney, N. S.; cost $15,000.

HUNTSVILLE, ONT.—W. Duperow's dwelling: Carpenter work, Ira Boadway; material, Irons & Winnacott.

AYLMER, QUE.—Victoria Yacht Club at Queens Park: Carpenter work, H. Bheaumeo. M.C. Eddy, architect.

DIDSFORD, ALTA.—The Corporation has purchased a double cylinder "McRobie" chemical fire engine.