GENTS—My daughter had a severe cold and injured her spine so she could not walk, and suffered very much. I called in our family physician; he pronounced it inflammation of the spine, and recommended MINARD'S LINIMENT to be used freely. Three bottles cured her. I have used my MINARD'S LINIMENT for a broken breast; it reduced the inflammation and cured me in ten days.

Hantsport. Mrs. N. SLIVER.

MR. W. H. HUGHES, Editor of the Michigan Catholic, has undertaken to publish a full report of the celebration of the hundredth anniversary of the establishment of the Catholic hierarchy in the United States, and of the Catholic Congress which will meet in Baltimore. His Excellence Cardinal Gibbons has approved of the undertaking, which we are confident will be well done by Mr. Hughes. The volume will be dedicated to the Holy Father Pope Leo XIII., and will contain portraits of the hierarchy of the United States in the best style of art.

THE Presbyterians of South Carolina have found a new cause for division, while the talk is so universal about union of various sects. The State Synod condemned Dr. Woodrow, who is the Professor of Natural Science in the University, and who favors the evolution theory. The result is that there are two factions now engaged in bitter controversy. The students of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary are forbidden to attend Dr. Woodrow's lectures, but a large party is in favor of his theories, and a violent strife is now going on.

A FAR-SEEING English Protestant has made the astounding discovery that the recent strike of the workmen in London was the "work of the Jesuits plotting, as ever, the ruin of England." Here is a fine theme for the next sermons to be delivered in those Toronto pulpits which have re-echoed to denunciations against the Jesuits during this year of grace. The diabolism of the authority need be no obstacle, for in those same pulpits it is the custom to speak on every subject except the Word of God. There is a chance also for some blood-curdling leaders in the Mail on the dangers arising from Jesuit intrigue.

THE New York Presbytery has given the key note on the subject of revision of the Westminster Confession. It was decided on the 4th inst. by a vote of sixty-seven to fifteen, that there should be a revision in its broad sense, so that the whole subject of doctrine and discipline may be reconsidered. It is the general belief that this decisive vote will cause many Presbyteries which were wavering to fall into line, and that the next General Assembly will of necessity take the matter up. Some are in favor of an entirely new creed, and these are very numerous, but it is doubtful if their views will prevail. It is, however, tolerably certain that very considerable changes will be made when the whole question will be taken up.

AT THE Court of Revision, in Toronto on the 8th inst. Mr. Hall, Secretary of the Separate School Board, was in attendance looking after the interests of the separate schools. He succeeded in

OBITUARY.

A GOOD MAN GONE TO REST.

On Saturday morning, October 25th, the quiet and happy home of Mr. John Stapleton, of Petrolia, was peacefully visited by the ever-loving messenger, Death. An apparently mild form of pneumonia had suddenly changed to a severe one, and the death had come in its full force. Monday morning, until on Saturday morning a sudden change disclosed the sad story, and the only earthly remains of a dear father and loving husband were laid to rest in the last long sleep in the little cemetery of St. Joseph's. The Requiem Mass was sung by Father Green, pastor of the deceased, and an eloquent sermon on death delivered by Father Kelly to the saddened congregation. The singing of a most pathetic style, rendered so by the combined efforts of the Cornudas and Petrolia choirs, of the Catholic church of Petrolia has lost one of her chief promoters, and she has left her an untiring example of solid piety and Catholicity, while to his children he has bequeathed a legacy of true paternal affection. While our prayers ascend to God in solemn prayer, we do not forget to include the living comfort upon those who so recently mourn his death R. I. P.

A POOR Weaver at Dundas!

The poor weaver at Dundas! In a room at the Archbishop's, Mr. Dieder, in the son of a shoemaker at Rosel, and his brother is a tailor at Elbing. And the Bishop-elect of Munster, Dr. Dingelstedt, is the son of a stockepper in a Rhenish village. It is so everywhere in the Catholic Church. Piety and ability are the only conditions for preferment, and even the highest dignity in the world, the Papal Tiara, has been and may be again placed on the head of a man of the humblest pedigree, so far as earthly distinctions are concerned.

CATHOLIC PRESS.

"I claim," said Chancellor Judd, of Chicago, at the Episcopal Convention, "that the creed which appears in the Book of Common Prayer is not the Nicene Creed. It is full of Roman error, and is especially so with reference to one article. . . . It is a Roman Catholic great credit on so young an artist. M. Milette with his banjo was a host in himself. Mr. J. Coffey's essay, "A Word on Books," was well received.

THE BALANCE OF THE MUSICAL PROGRAMME

was then rendered.

The Rev. Father Donnelly, at the close of the entertainment, made a neat complimentary address. He spoke of the welfare of both societies, in which he takes a deep interest, and closed by saying that he wished in a particular manner to thank Mr. Curran, whose zeal in every good cause was so well known, and of whose talents and devotedness the Irish Catholics of America have such good reason to feel proud.

THE CHICAGO TIMES QUOTES THE OPINIONS of two English Tory members of Parliament, named Baumann and Kimber, who were present at the Cronin trial for a few minutes the other day and vouchsafed the information that tampering with juries was a felony in England, but juries have had to abandon trial by jury there on that account." They for got to explain that the tampering is all done by the Government. Mr. Baumann further informed the Times man that Sackville West was dismissed at the instigation of the Irish, and that the same element was responsible for the Baring-Saxton trouble. The Tory gentlemen unconsciously pay a high compliment to the wisdom and influence of the Irish in America. If they were not Tories and therefore hopelessly unteachable, they might ask themselves if it is not worth while to win the good will of a people at home whose ill can be so fatal abroad!

THE TORONTO MIRROR.

There is a growing belief among American Catholics that religious newspapers should curb their propensity for meddling in criminal matters. If accusers who pose as friends of Ireland steep their hands in blood, or if assassination is unjustly ascribed to secret agents that are in fact the province of American religious journals to assume the role of counsel for either side. Catholics, as a body, are not responsible for the crimes of cut throats and political assassins, no matter what the pretended character of the latter may be; and it is not the province of American religious journals to assume the role of counsel for either side. CATHOLIC COLUMNIAN.

The Catholic Church admires merit in men, and opportunistly disregards differences of rank and fortune. It looks only to the beauty of the soul, and it raises the lowly who have great virtue to make them its princes. A proof of this, look at the history of the great men of Germany. The Prince Archbishop of Cologne, Mgr. Dieder, is the son of a butcher in Coblentz. The Prince Archbishop of Breslau, Dr. Kopp, is the son of

WEDDING BELLS.

On Tuesday, the 13th October, at St. Joseph's Church, Kingsbridge, Miss Minnie Sullivan, 25 years of age, was united in matrimony, to Mr. James Dieder, the Rev. Father being officiating. As the young couple were very poor, the Rev. Father, a member of the church choir, was also the groom, who is much esteemed, the event was long forward to the Rev. Father, and the church was crowded to witness the ceremony. On the occasion looked more than usual, as the Rev. Father, who is a member of the church choir, was also the groom, who is much esteemed, the event was long forward to the Rev. Father, and the church was crowded to witness the ceremony.
