MATTICE—TOWNSEND

From a cloudless sky the Autumn sun smiled with an Indian Summer blush upon the hymenial altar erected in the beautiful summer home at Mt Pleasant of Mr and Mrs. A. E. Townsend. The occasion was the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Ruby, to Mr. George Thomas Mattice, one of Brantford's popular tonsorial artists. The bride, who was unattended, entered leaning upon the arm of her father, her little brother Harry acting as page, while Miss Birdsell of Burtch played the weddiing march. The bridal pair immediately took their place in front of a copse of ferns bordered with red and white and blue, bloom, and under a pair of entwined hearts of green and whtie. The beautiful Presbyterian service was impressively rendered by Rev. Whitelaw of Balfour street church. Charming in [illegible] and bloom, and carried a boquet of white Russian roses with lady

The Late Annie Walsh.

The funeral of the late Annie Walsh took place from her father's residence, 62 Dundas street, to St. Basil's church, where requiem high mass was solemnized by Rev. Father Doyle, thence to St. Joseph's cemetery, where the funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dean Brady.

The pallbearers were: Tim Walsh, ferns. Guests were present from Burtch, Myecombe, Simcoe, Waterford, Oakland, Detroit, Niagara Falls, and Brantford. Many and costly were the gifts, speaking eloquently of popularity. After a delightful dinner the young couple left for a two weeks honeymoon trip to Detroit and other western cities under the Stars and stripes. They will reside in Brantford upon their return.

PRISONERS AT PARIS

PARIS, Sept. 15.—Thousands of persons gathered at the eastern and northern stations and along the Rue Layfayette last night in the hope of seeing the convoy of 300 German prisoners brought from Noisy-Le-Sec. As has been done heretofore, however, the prisoners were sent around Paris by the belt railroad in order to avoid demonstrations in the streets, and the crowds were disappointed after hours of waiting. Nine hundred wounded German prisoners en route from western points passed through St. Germain in the evening.

SOLDIERS OFF DUTY

Battle of Marne Has Resulted in Many Getting Back to Paris.

PARIS, Sept. 16, 4.25 a.m.—Since the big battle of the Marne a great many more soldiers have been seen off duty on the streets of Paris than at any time since hostilities commenced. Among them are many with arms in slings or heads bandaged. As soon as they appear they are quickly surrounded by sympathetic crowds eager to praise and feast them and get stories from the front. The British soldiers and the Turcos are particularly popular.

The War Office has decided that all soldiers on leave more than 48 hours must submit their permission to visit to a local commander. An order has also been issued that any soldier speaking of the military operations in a way to cause discontentde must join his corps immediately.

LACK OF CAVALRY

Daily News Laments That British Are Not in Stronger Force.

[By Special Wire to the Courier]

LONDON, Sept. 16—The Daily News correspondent following pursuit with the allies, laments the lack of sufficient cavalry, he says

"The French cavalry has not been fortunate in this division. Too often it timed its brilliant charges too late and only swept over the crest when the German guns had secured the range to mow them down. Hence their support has not always been available at the right moment, but their courage and dash have been characteristic."

MT. VERNON

[From Our Own Correspondent]

A pretty house wedding took place at "Pleasant Retreat" farm on Wednesday, September 9th, at 12.30, when Miss Lillian Mae, youngest daughter of Mrs. Wm Mott, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Russell Herbert Hellyer of Waterford, by the Rev. Wray Davidson, cousin of the bride.

The bride looked charming in her wedding gown of silk crepe trimmed with real Swiss lace and pearls, and wearing the customary bridal veil. She entered the drawing room on the arm of Langford, played Mendelssonn's wedding march and Miss Daniel of Paris sang the wedding song "Because." A splendid wedding repast was served by a well-known Brantford caterer. The groom's gift to the bride was a lovely wrist watch; to the soloist, a handsome barn pin; and to the page, a signet ring. The happy couple left by auto for Brantford and will spend their honeymoon at Eastern points. The bride travelled in a suit of navy blue ladies' cloth with hat to match. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Helyer will reside near Waterford.

There was a well filled church last Sabbath afternoon and evening when Rev. Mr. Cole preached the Harvest Home services. In the afternoon he took his text from Psalm 24: 1, "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof: the world and they that dwell therein." In the evening he preached from Galations 6: 7, "Be not deceived, God is not mocked; for whatsoever a man soweth that shell he also reap." Both sermons were strong and impressive. The choir rendered special music for the day. The church was beautifuly decorated with flowers, fruits and vegetables, which made a fine appearance. The supper and programme which was given on Monday evening was a great success., the proceeds amounting to about 45.00. The programme was quite lengthy and all the performers were at their best. The evening was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. David Cleveland are visiting with the latter's sister Miss Judson.

It was officially announced that Rheims had been occupied by the Anglo-French troops.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid of Balfour street Presbyterian church was held on Tuesday afternoon. The attendiance was large and enthusiastic and a large amount of business was dealt with. Plans for the winter's work were thoroughly discussed. A very interesting Bible reading was taken up being led by the president, Mrs. J. Book. It proved very instructive and helpful and these Bible readings will form a part of the programme at future meetings.

An appreciative audience enjoyed a delightful program at the musicale held last evening at the home of Mrs. Edwin Wilson, Sarah street, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of Alexandra Church. Vocal solos were sung by Miss Butler and Mr. Gilbert Scott, a "Lullaby Song" by Miss Dorothy Baird; instrumental solos by Miss McFarland, Doris Cooper and Lilian Wilson; instrumental duets by Mrs. Cromar and Mrs. Barton, the Misses Lois Wiley and Lona Baltzer; a reading by Miss Kathleen Moyer. Three splendid selections were sung by the ladies' quartet, comprising Mrs. Barton, the Misses Marlette, Waldron and Heath. Mrs. George was the accompanist for the evening. Mr. George Macdonald, on behalf of the ladies, extended thanks to all who had contributed to the pleasure of the evening. After the serving of refreshments the national anthem, heartily sung by the audience, concluded the program.

TREATMENT OF VANQUISHED

PARIS, Sept. 16.—It has been learned here that General Lutaud, governor-general of Algeria, and commander-in-chief of the North African provinces, sent a message to his local officials, reminding them of the attitude of France in the matter of treatment of prisoners of war with special reference to the convoy of German prisoners soon to arrive in Algeria, and who says should be treated humanely and kindly. "You shoul dnot forget the general reminds his subordinates, 'that they are a conquered people deprived of arms, even though other nations have violated human rights, nevertheless France, in accordance with her old traditions, should give an example to the world of the exemplary treatment of a vanquished foe, showing in its superiority in arms, elevation of conscience and respect for human liberties."
