WITH THE SOLDIERS

The enlistment of American citizens in the Canadian Expeditionary Forces while looked upon with favor by some military men, has been the cause of a considerable amount of trouble, as is shown by the camp orders for yesterday, which states that in view of the numerous requests being received from citizens of the United States for the discharge of relatives who are under 21 years of age who have enlisted in the Canadian Expeditionary Forces, it has been decided that hereafter where a man gives his place of birth or next of kin as being in the United States he is not to be enlisted unless the age of 21 years is over.

NOTES OF THE 21ST

Major Dunan is in Toronto today.

Major Snider, who is in Oakville for the purpose of attending the funeral of his brother-in-law, Capt. Appleby, is expected back to the city today.

Arrangements are now under way to make Saturday night's entertainment the finest of its kind ever presented here. Talent from the 120th Hamilton Battalion, will assist in the program, including a quartette of singers with the well known tenor, Vernon Carney.

The following is an extract from camp orders:

In view of the large number of military clerks who will be required for service at the camps during the coming summer, officers commanding units of the C. E. F. are requested to forward to headquarters, the names of

ECONOMIC UNITY IS NOT FAVORED

Turkey and Austria Have No Desire to be Dependent on Germany.

Wants the Recruits.

Washington, April 6.—General Funston today asked the war department to send the recruits, enlisted under the recent authorization of 20,000 additional men to Brownsville, Texas, for distribution among the border patrol regiments. They will not be sent across the border, but will fill up regiments of the border guard.

No More Big Four.

Toronto, April 6.—The action of the Montreal A.A.A. in withdrawing from active participation in sport while the war is on may cause the Big Four Rugby Union to close up shop next fall, according to local football men. With the Winged Wheel team out of the union could hardly continue. The move of the big Montreal club came as a great surprise to sport followers in this vicinity.

History Repeats Itself.

Copenhagen, April 6.—Danish, all sons of farmers, are going from Denmark in batches of 500 to help make up the shortage of labor on English farms.

Interrupted Chancellor.

New York, April 6.—A news agency dispatch from Copenhagen today says Dr. Liebknecht, militant German Socialist, frequently interrupted Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg during the latter's speech before the Reichstag and forced him to cease his interruptions by threats of ousting him from the chamber.

CARPETS AND CURTAINS

Here are SUITS at... $19.75

Possessing An Unusual Amount of Style and Value

This is going to be a rather unusual season—several reasons will make it so. The manufacturers are making serious complaint that they cannot get cloth to make up the garments, and the scarcity of dyes has increased the cost of fabrics as well, making it difficult to secure fabrics of certain colors. In view of these conditions, these Suits at $19.75 ought to be very interesting to any woman who has a set price of $19.50 to $22.50 for her Spring Suit.

The New Waists for Spring

Dozens Upon Dozens of Them

And we mean every word of it. We've selected three models—can't say which of these is the prettiest. You will like them all.

Crepe de Chine Waists $3.75
A Crepe de Chine Waist at $3.75 would be considered a good value most any time. Right now, while Silks are advancing in price, this is a very unusual value. Colors are Maize, Blue, Cream, White; has the new collar and large pearl buttons.

Waists of Georgette Crepe $5.00
These waists are made with new collars, which help make a pretty frame for the throat and face. You will like these styles. And the price is only $5.00. They come in all the newest colorings for Spring wear.

Habutai Silk Waists $2.25
Habutai Silk Waists in Black and White. Tailored styles, all sizes. Special at $2.25

St. Pauls' Sexton Hangs Himself

New York, April 6.—Under the belfry of old St. Paul's church the sexton hanged himself today. Philip G. Walter, tiring, he had recently complained, of the monotony of his position after thirty-one years of service at the famous edifice, climbed upon a piano stool which he had placed upon a table, fastened a sash around his neck, tied the end of this cord to the head of the stairs which lead to the belfry, and kicked the stool from under him.

Farms for Soldiers.

Vancouver, B.C., April 6.—A government bill has been introduced for providing homesteads and loans for returned soldiers, with provisions to prevent the lands getting into the hands of speculators.

Meat Cakes Spreading.

Berlin, April 6.—Via London, April 6.—Meat cakes will be introduced in Bavaria and Saxony on April 15, permitting consumption of 150 grams (one-third pound) per capita daily, except on two meatless days each week.

Washington Still Waiting For Word on Sussex Disaster.

Washington, April 6.—With the entire submarine situation hinging upon the attitude in regard to the Sussex and other recent marine disasters, administration officials to-day awaited with intense interest a response from the Berlin foreign office to inquiries made by Ambassador Gerard.

HOLLAND Makes Demand on England For Return of Securities.

Holland has demanded from England the return of valuable securities and documents seized in the mails taken from Dutch ships by vessels of the British navy.

Budget Taxes Well Received

London, April 6.—(Cable to The New York Sun)—The proposals in the biggest budget in history, which was described yesterday in the House of Commons by Reginald McKenna, chancellor of the exchequer, are in general surprisingly well received. Both the trades and the general public have taken the new taxes philosophically. The tax on amusements, especially on moving picture establishments, is considered justifiable. There is slight objection to the proposed taxes on railroad tickets and matches.

Civilians Interned.

London, April 6.—(New York Sun cable)—Sir Herbert Samuel, the home secretary, in reply to a question in the House of Commons to-day, said that the number of civilians in British internment camps at present was 32,149. The number released from these camps between October and April 1, he said, was 803.
