Saxony Scandal to End in New Marriage

Princess and Prince Have Reached Agreement.

Special to the Daily Nugget. Salsbourg, April 18.—The Crown Princess Louise of Saxony and her husband are to be re-united next week for the sake of the children. It is announced that the crown prince and princess at Salsbourg will be married when they will be immediately re-united.

DAMAGES CLAIMED

Parisian Lawyer Sued for Libel

Miracle the Plaintiff Alleges His Character Injured to Extent of $25,000.

The sequel to a burning communication that appeared in a recent issue of a morning contemporary over the signature of Henri Planchat in which he had been vilified as a scoundrel and it would require $25,000 to heal the wounds. How the matter is known only to those on the inside but it is presumed to have come out of a lawsuit heard in the commissioner's court in which Planchat was the defendant and Miracle as an important witness for the plaintiff. At any rate a day or two after the trial the communication referred to appeared in the Sun, its contents intensely reminding one of the much of Zola's famous "J'accuse."

In the statement of claim filed by the plaintiff he alleges that he has been damaged by the defendant making writing, publishing and printing a newspaper at Dawson of and accusing the plaintiff of the words "I have accused Dr. Miracle of perjury" meaning that the plaintiff was a witness in a judicial proceeding as such witness and as a part of his evidence knowing such to be false, falsely testified and committed the crime of perjury. The words complained of it is stated in the complaint were written in a letter addressed and signed by the editor of a newspaper published at Dawson in the Yukon Territory and called the Yukon Sun, and published at the suggestion of the defendant on April 10, 1903. In consequence of the publication the plaintiff claims that he has been and is greatly injured in his credit and reputation, such injuries amounting to $25,000. Shortly after being served with the papers in the suit Mr. Planchat, who by the way is an attorney of France with license to practice before all the courts of Paris, was seen and laughed at the incident, characterizing it as a "bon comedie."

FINE RUN

Made by W. P. Stage-Arriving Last Night

The best run of any regular stage of the White Pass line between Dawson and Whitehorse was completed last night by the incoming stage which arrived here early in the evening. Besides a full list of passengers a large mail and express consignment was loaded on the stage. The only other stage which has come near the same time was a special which brought in the Willis party and which made the trip in three days and 18 hours. This however brought in a very light load and came through when the trail was in a much better condition than it is at present.

The stage arriving last evening made the trip in 3 days and 22 hours and was driven by Jim Latham, one of the best drivers in the employ of the company. The passengers arriving were Mr. Chas. McDonald, J. R. McGovern, Geo. P. Wills, E. L. Webber, R. and N. Butler, William and Mrs. Scouse. Another stage with one sack of way mail and a full load of passengers is expected to arrive tomorrow morning.

H. W. Corbett's Will

Portland, Or., April 4.—The will of the late H. W. Corbett, former United States senator, was filed for probate this afternoon. To his wife he bequeathed $150,000 in cash, $1,000 per month during her lifetime, and the right to occupy the family residence.

The main bequests are to the widow of the deceased and his grandsons. The family servants are remembered. A number of charitable and educational institutions of this city are remembered with substantial amounts, and several boards connected with the Presbyterian church are devised various sums of money. The following are the principal bequests: Mrs. H. W. Corbett, $150,000; Henry Ladd Corbett, $25,000; Helen Ladd Corbett, $25,000; Board of Presbyterian Home Missions, $25,000; Portland Academy, $25,000; Portland Art Association, $25,000; for establishing a home for old ladies $15,000; The Home, of Portland, $50,000; Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, $10,000; Y.M.C.A., $30,000.

All of his estate not otherwise bequeathed goes to his grandchildren, Henry L. Corbett, Elliott R. Corbett and Hamilton F. Corbett.

Want Line to Alaska

Fairhaven, April 14.—The loading to the Pacific Clipper Line of the Alaskan vessels of the Pacific Packing & Navigation Company has necessarily changed the plans of those who were endeavoring to get the latter company to place Bellingham bay on its Alaska run, but it has not altered their determination to secure such a service, either through the lessees or some other steamship line. The more the situation is canvassed the more hopeful the outlook becomes, and success seems practically assured.

The matter will be taken up with Capt. Elmer E. Caine, of the Clipper company, to whom a statement of the amount of freight shipped from the bay cities to Alaska last year will be presented, and an effort will be made to have him visit Fairhaven and Whatcom and get a true conception of the situation at first hand.

COMMITTEE TO VISIT ALASKA

United States Senators Will Make Lengthy Trip of Inspection. To Examine Into All the Needs of the Territory—May Investigate Judicial Misdoings at Cape Nome.

Special to the Daily Nugget. Washington, April 18.—Senator Beveridge has announced the appointment of a sub-committee of the senate committee on territories who will visit Alaska this summer under the authority of a resolution passed by the recent congress.

The sub-committee consists of Senators Dillingham, of Vermont, chairman; Burnham, of New Hampshire; Nelson, of Minnesota; and Patterson of Colorado.

The committee will sail from Seattle in June, and will spend July and August and perhaps part of September in the territory. It purposes to make a more thorough investigation of conditions in Alaska than has ever been made by any individual or member of congress or any previous committee.

The sub-committee is empowered to summon persons to appear before it and examine them under oath, also to call for any papers they may wish to examine. The committee will have in these respects all the authority of a court of law. Senator Beveridge said the sub-committee would examine particularly into the land situation, the mining industry and the question of authorizing the election of a delegate to represent Alaska in congress.

It is not unlikely that the Nome judiciary scandal may be examined into.

Rumor Denied. London, April 18.—The British premier emphatically repudiates the alleged intention of the government to give home rule to Ireland.

Special to the Daily Nugget. Wampian, Pa., April 18.—During an attempt to rob the First National Bank of Wampian one man was killed and another wounded.

At the Methodist church tomorrow Rev. John Pringle of Grand Forks will preach both morning and evening. Mr. Pringle needs no introduction to the Dawson public, his ability as an eloquent and forceful speaker being well known. Good audiences should greet him both morning and evening. Special music will be furnished by the choir.

LOCAL BREVITIES. Shindler's latest innovation is to establish a telephone in his hardware emporium. His number is 224a.

Wilson Foster and his associates are driving a tunnel in the group of quartz claims located on the mountain directly across the Yukon from the court house. The tunnel enters the hill a short distance above high water mark.

J. H. Bowes intends leaving for the outside within a short time and probably will not return. He opines there are too many barristers here for the litigation to sight and will assist as far as is in his power to relieve the congestion.

The latest theatrical rumor about the streets is to the effect that Frank Redick will arrive after the opening of navigation with an entire new aggregation of stars with which he will reopen the Auditorium. Jim Hall is said to be back of the venture.

In the mail received yesterday evening Crown Timber and Land Agent Martin received the order in council relating to the imposition of a royalty of ten cents a ton on all coal mined in the territory, news of which was first received by wire some ten days ago. The order has been posted and goes into effect immediately.

At noon yesterday the court sitting en banc adjourned until Monday morning at 10 o'clock. No session was held in the afternoon, the case of Goldstem vs Sawyer running so late in the day that it was not considered worth while taking up that of Raymond vs Faulkner which will be quite lengthy, and which will be the first thing taken up Monday morning. Mr. Justice Dugas has announced that he will hear chamber motions Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

C. C. McGregor, one of the oldest officials in the civil service in the territory, who since the death of Captain Bliss has been the license inspector, tendered his resignation yesterday to Commissioner Congdon and at his earnest request it was accepted at once. Mr. McGregor has been connected with the service here since '87, having arrived with the first bunch of officials sent out from Ottawa. His resignation was due to a desire to enter business for himself, an interest in the firm of Murray & Ross having been purchased.

Yesterday afternoon there blew into the city via one of the back streets a stampeder fresh from the green hills of the Tanana. There was something about the individual that looked familiar to a number hanging about the Auditorium, but it was not until the person had taken an oath as to his identity that it was decided that he was none other than Frank Montgomery, erstwhile heavy man of the Bitter All Star Company. He looked like the remains of an ill spent night and says the Tananans don't look good to him.

CHANCES OF SHAMROCK

To Lift America's Cup Are Slim

London Papers Are Not Hopeful of Outcome of Yacht Races.

Special to the Daily Nugget. London, April 18.—London papers while sympathizing with Sir Thomas Lipton concede that the Shamrock's chances are spoiled. The Standard thinks that further explanation of the recent accident to the boat is needed. It remarks that the last time it was a bolt that yielded and now it is a screw that has snapped. "We do not hear that these breakages occur on American boats," continues the article. The Standard fears that Lipton's chances, at no time very good, are now less than ever. Another paper asks why there were no life buoys aboard to throw to the seaman Collier who was drowned.

Les in a Trance. Morristown, N. J., March 23.—For five days Mrs. J. M. Reeve, of Succasunna, has lain in a trance. She sleeps deeply, as if at rest, and never moves a muscle. The physicians fear she will die without recovering consciousness.

For many years past Mrs. Reeve has been subject to lapses of consciousness, but they have never lasted more than a few hours at a time. At such times, on awakening, she has told strange tales of having been in the spirit land, and of conversing with her departed husband. It is asserted that she has foretold the death of various persons.

About a year ago she told of a vision in which she saw seven men lying dead. She was so sure that something dreadful was going to happen that she spread the news throughout the village. Two days later the powder works blew up, and seven men were killed.

Money Changed. San Francisco, March 13.—Sixty-five thousand dollars of Hawaiian money has been transferred from the United States sub-treasury to the local mint. This is the first consignment of Hawaiian coins to be melted and turned into United States money.

How much longer can I endure it? This morning my husband rose before daybreak. He was too lazy to light a lamp, and breakfasted in the dark. The result was he ate the prepared kindling wood instead of the predestined breakfast food.

When the servants got up there was nothing to build the fire with. Of course they were angry and left. I do not blame them.

I spoke of the matter to my husband tonight. He said he did not care, that he had felt first rate all day.

The selfish brute! I am quite calm as I write. I marvel at my own patience.—Life.

"Do you really think Philadelphia is slow?"

"Well, it's deliberate. My Philadelphia aunt lost a diamond ring, and advertised it in a newspaper a year after she missed it. Two years later it was returned by a man who said the paper was a year old before he saw the advertisement, and that he had determined to leave it with my aunt the first time he came her way—and he was a year coming."—Cleveland Plaindealer.

CASE ENLARGED.

James L. Dozier brought suit in the police court this morning against J. Teller for wages amounting to $70.40 for work performed on Swede creek. Attorney McDougall appeared for the defendant and asked for an enlargement until Wednesday next in order to procure witnesses. Thursday morning at 10 o'clock was set by the court as the time for the case to be called.

SUITABLY REWARDED.

Acting Official Receives $2,200 as Back Salary. The friends of Mr. T. Dufferin Pattullo, late acting assistant gold commissioner, who though nominally but the chief clerk of the staff filled the first named important position for considerably over a year, will be greatly gratified to learn that he has just received the sum of $2,200 from Ottawa as compensation for the time he occupied the higher position mentioned though receiving only the salary of the chief clerk. What makes Mr. Pattullo's good luck particularly a matter of congratulation is the fact that it is contrary to all precedent in the civil service for one temporarily occupying a position as an acting official to draw the salary of such. That an exception is shown in his case speaks remarkably well for the high esteem in which Mr. Pattullo is held by the department of the interior with which he has been so long connected. His first trip to the Yukon was in '97 as the private secretary to Major Walsh, the first commissioner of the Yukon.

Owing to the present warm weather and the desire of the management to have the ice for the carnival tomorrow night in as good condition as possible, there will be no skating tomorrow afternoon nor until the beginning of the carnival in the evening. The prizes have all been selected and are on view at the reading room of the club.

Today has been a day of surprises, pleasant and otherwise. Among the latter has been the playful practice of miniature avalanches sliding off roofs just as a pedestrian was passing beneath, precipitating a shovelful or two of the beautiful down the unwary victim's neck. This is written from experience.

A Brooklynite who for purposes of business and recreation is a frequent visitor to the state of Georgia arrived by carriage at a small railway station there one day not long ago, just in time to see a Florida express go thundering by. Turning to an old dinky who stood upon the platform he said:

"Uncle, doesn't that train ever stop here?"

"Stop! Lawd bless yer, no. It don't do nothing of de sort. Why, it don't even hesitate!"

Which recalls the old proverb, "It's a wise train that knows its own schedule—and sticks to it."

"Whatever is yours is mine, too," said the young bride.

"I guess not," said the husband, curtly.

"Why not?" she inquired.

"Because I won't have it so."

"But it must be so," she insisted.

"Not much," he said. "Now for instance there is my wife."

"Oh," she cried, joyfully, and fell upon his neck, for surely she wanted herself to be all his.—Comfort.

Special to the Daily Nugget. London, April 18.—The British battleship Victorious has been ordered to Greece owing to the threatening aspect of affairs in the Balkans. DATE HAS BEEN FIXED

Council Meeting to be Held May 7

Session Will be Short as Little Can be Attended to Beyond Routine Matters.

The date of the meeting of the Yukon council, which Commissioner Congdon decided a few days ago to call at the earliest convenience, has been decided and fixed for Thursday, May 7. The session will not be lengthy and may not last over one day, there being but little of importance that the legislative body can attend to at present. The budget or supply bill will be one of the first things taken up. It provides for the expenditures after the budget has been passed by parliament and also all arrears that may have accumulated during the winter and spring. The new members will be sworn in and the various standing committees will be named. The proposed lien law will also be considered, but there is slight chance of its being passed as it is at present stands. Some of its provisions are said to be impossible of fulfillment and the amendments that will be necessary are so many that the original bill will be scarcely recognizable when it is ready for its final passage. At least that is the opinion of several of the members who are conversant with the ordinance that is to be introduced. A complete program of matters that are to be brought up will be arranged by Territorial Secretary Brown next week.

"And now," asked the teacher at the end of a long description of the grain, "where is the seat of government?"

"Can any of you tell me?"

"Yesum," replied Johnny Brighteyes, "in the little finger, where you tie a string around it to make you recollect!"—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.
