Public School Board Hold Caucus to Arrange Recognition for Deserving Teachers

Rumor hath it that several of our capable and deserving Public school teachers are to receive a pleasant Christmas bbox in moderate increases to their annual stipend. The Board of Trustees field a friendly caucus in the offices of the Chairman last evening for the purpose of adjust-ing the salary schedule for the en-suing year and some increases for both schools unanimously decided upon.

ooth schools unanimously decided upon.

The increases, however, will not total the amount of increases to civic officials made this year by the City Council, and are really only recognitions of merit earned by energetic and capable members of the teaching staff.

SUNDAY WORK

Evidence Completed in the Case of the Alliance vs. the Oil Corporation

In the adjourned case of the Lord's Day Alliance against the Bothwell oil corporation before Judge Houston at County Court this morning, the Crown completed the putting in of its rebuttal evidence.

Alex. Elliott, G. Lutes, Henry Alcott, Charles Baverstock and Lorenzo Ellwood, all expert oil men, gave evidence that it was unnecessary to operate the wells on the Lord's Day and that they would produce better results from the rest one day in seven, when the oil accumulated.

The case was then closed, argument being set down for Friday, the 8th inst., Crown Attorney Smith for the prosecution and O. L. Lewis and W. R. Hickey for the defence.
