We stated that Mr. Murray did perience of New Brnnswick from not know good land from bad land, recklessly catching the Railway mania which is said to have plunged that Province into financial difficulties. This asks us to "substantiate" this. Yes. Get a copy of his report, and read regarded; and we entirely agree with him, that before we attempt to go further than Avalon we should by all white BIRCH. If Sir Alexander ther than Avalon we should by all means be sure of the gains to be reaped and through a country entirely unsettled, and only partially extended. The writer very discreetly grows upon the coal measures, and grows upon the coal measures, and others who will be glad to meet all his old friends and customers, and all others who will be kind enough to favor him with their patronage. expects to gain from the line being extended across the entire Island; and good.
