

THE CHARLOTTETOWN HERALD.

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS

It is expected that work on the Caledonia ship railway will soon be resumed.

THE H. John Ross has got to his lips setting mention.

The Arctic, the beauty of the fishery afternoon.

Mat. Berries, and so of lot & was said to have been for a day.

The steamer St. Olaf was here on Friday with about two hundred emigrants from Skagway and Argentia.

The steamer White Bear left here Saturday morning, and arrived at return home.

The steamer Arctic, making extensive improvements in her machinery to now have

Lawyers who with the other prisoners of war were held at Charlottetown, were his services to the British Court of Canada.

Mr. J. E. Smith, of Charlottetown, had a valuable watch and chain, which he had lost and was strengthened by the British.

Mr. Charles Lyons, the popular and energetic merchant, is having a new large house built on his present premises on Queen Street, and the work is progressing rapidly.

A NUMBER of experiments have been made on the Queen's Road, and the results of these were not as well as could be desired, but the number of the unfortunate took their ill luck to heart very seriously.

The date of the Diamond Jubilee is set for July 1st, by Mr. H. B. Smith and others.

A man, aged 60, was shot at North Lake, last Friday evening, by a shot from a gun which he had discharged in the direction of a horse and rider.

A young lad eight or nine years of age, living in Lower Newcastle, N.B., bitched his mother in the mouth, and she was taken to hospital.

A sad case of suicide occurred at Elmwood near Alberton, on Saturday evening, when a certain Mr. W. A. McLean, a respectable farmer, who had recently come from Ireland, was found hanging from a tree in the garden of his home.

He had been ill for some time, and had recently married.

CHARLES Clapham, the well-known electrical designer and manufacturer of apparatus, and Reptiles in all its forms, is continuing his experiments in increasing the power of his batteries, and determining the exact time of the year when they are most effective.

The artist is from the family of those families.

He has already illustrated, and is continuing his portraits.

Among those portraits are those of General Gordon, General Grant, and General MacArthur.

He is now at work on a portrait of Mr. George Brown.

He has also done a portrait of Mr. William McLean, of New York.

On Saturday a number of lightning bolts struck over the Island from the west. The most damage was in the parish of St. John's, where a bridge, a school, and a house were destroyed, and a number of Mr. Sylvain C. Arsenault was struck.

A man, who was in the parish of St. John's, was struck by lightning, and was killed.

Mr. Charles G. Arsenault, a carpenter, is reported to have been struck and killed.

The telephone lines at Summerside were damaged, and communication was interrupted.

Mr. John Smith of Rocky Point was interviewed. This has been repaired.

Mr. John Smith of Rocky Point was interviewed. This has been repaired.

Two young men, named Irving, were drowned at this point. A copy of the Macmillan's book is to be sent to every one there.

WILLIAM McLean, the carpenter, who was born in Scotland, came to this country for the first time, and was engaged working in the shipyards of the Bay of Fundy.

He is now a carpenter and contractor, and the owner of a house in the city.

CHARLES Clapham, the well-known electrical designer and manufacturer of apparatus, and Reptiles in all its forms, is continuing his experiments in increasing the power of his batteries, and determining the exact time of the year when they are most effective.

The artist is from the family of those families.

He has already illustrated, and is continuing his portraits.

Among those portraits are those of General Gordon, General Grant, and General MacArthur.

He is now at work on a portrait of Mr. George Brown.

He has also done a portrait of Mr. William McLean, of New York.

On Saturday a number of lightning bolts struck over the Island from the west. The most damage was in the parish of St. John's, where a bridge, a school, and a house were destroyed, and a number of Mr. Sylvain C. Arsenault was struck.

A man, who was in the parish of St. John's, was struck by lightning, and was killed.

Mr. Charles G. Arsenault, a carpenter, is reported to have been struck and killed.

The telephone lines at Summerside were damaged, and communication was interrupted.

Mr. John Smith of Rocky Point was interviewed. This has been repaired.

Mr. John Smith of Rocky Point was interviewed. This has been repaired.

Two young men, named Irving, were drowned at this point. A copy of the Macmillan's book is to be sent to every one there.

WILLIAM McLean, the carpenter, who was born in Scotland, came to this country for the first time, and was engaged working in the shipyards of the Bay of Fundy.

He is now a carpenter and contractor, and the owner of a house in the city.

CHARLES Clapham, the well-known electrical designer and manufacturer of apparatus, and Reptiles in all its forms, is continuing his experiments in increasing the power of his batteries, and determining the exact time of the year when they are most effective.

The artist is from the family of those families.

He has already illustrated, and is continuing his portraits.

Among those portraits are those of General Gordon, General Grant, and General MacArthur.

He is now at work on a portrait of Mr. George Brown.

He has also done a portrait of Mr. William McLean, of New York.

On Saturday a number of lightning bolts struck over the Island from the west. The most damage was in the parish of St. John's, where a bridge, a school, and a house were destroyed, and a number of Mr. Sylvain C. Arsenault was struck.

A man, who was in the parish of St. John's, was struck by lightning, and was killed.

Mr. Charles G. Arsenault, a carpenter, is reported to have been struck and killed.

The telephone lines at Summerside were damaged, and communication was interrupted.

Mr. John Smith of Rocky Point was interviewed. This has been repaired.

Mr. John Smith of Rocky Point was interviewed. This has been repaired.

Two young men, named Irving, were drowned at this point. A copy of the Macmillan's book is to be sent to every one there.

WILLIAM McLean, the carpenter, who was born in Scotland, came to this country for the first time, and was engaged working in the shipyards of the Bay of Fundy.

He is now a carpenter and contractor, and the owner of a house in the city.

CHARLES Clapham, the well-known electrical designer and manufacturer of apparatus, and Reptiles in all its forms, is continuing his experiments in increasing the power of his batteries, and determining the exact time of the year when they are most effective.

The artist is from the family of those families.

He has already illustrated, and is continuing his portraits.

Among those portraits are those of General Gordon, General Grant, and General MacArthur.

He is now at work on a portrait of Mr. George Brown.

He has also done a portrait of Mr. William McLean, of New York.

On Saturday a number of lightning bolts struck over the Island from the west. The most damage was in the parish of St. John's, where a bridge, a school, and a house were destroyed, and a number of Mr. Sylvain C. Arsenault was struck.

A man, who was in the parish of St. John's, was struck by lightning, and was killed.

Mr. Charles G. Arsenault, a carpenter, is reported to have been struck and killed.

The telephone lines at Summerside were damaged, and communication was interrupted.

Mr. John Smith of Rocky Point was interviewed. This has been repaired.

Mr. John Smith of Rocky Point was interviewed. This has been repaired.

Two young men, named Irving, were drowned at this point. A copy of the Macmillan's book is to be sent to every one there.

WILLIAM McLean, the carpenter, who was born in Scotland, came to this country for the first time, and was engaged working in the shipyards of the Bay of Fundy.

He is now a carpenter and contractor, and the owner of a house in the city.

CHARLES Clapham, the well-known electrical designer and manufacturer of apparatus, and Reptiles in all its forms, is continuing his experiments in increasing the power of his batteries, and determining the exact time of the year when they are most effective.

The artist is from the family of those families.

He has already illustrated, and is continuing his portraits.

Among those portraits are those of General Gordon, General Grant, and General MacArthur.

He is now at work on a portrait of Mr. George Brown.

He has also done a portrait of Mr. William McLean, of New York.

On Saturday a number of lightning bolts struck over the Island from the west. The most damage was in the parish of St. John's, where a bridge, a school, and a house were destroyed, and a number of Mr. Sylvain C. Arsenault was struck.

A man, who was in the parish of St. John's, was struck by lightning, and was killed.

Mr. Charles G. Arsenault, a carpenter, is reported to have been struck and killed.

The telephone lines at Summerside were damaged, and communication was interrupted.

Mr. John Smith of Rocky Point was interviewed. This has been repaired.

Mr. John Smith of Rocky Point was interviewed. This has been repaired.

Two young men, named Irving, were drowned at this point. A copy of the Macmillan's book is to be sent to every one there.

WILLIAM McLean, the carpenter, who was born in Scotland, came to this country for the first time, and was engaged working in the shipyards of the Bay of Fundy.

He is now a carpenter and contractor, and the owner of a house in the city.

CHARLES Clapham, the well-known electrical designer and manufacturer of apparatus, and Reptiles in all its forms, is continuing his experiments in increasing the power of his batteries, and determining the exact time of the year when they are most effective.

The artist is from the family of those families.

He has already illustrated, and is continuing his portraits.

Among those portraits are those of General Gordon, General Grant, and General MacArthur.

He is now at work on a portrait of Mr. George Brown.

He has also done a portrait of Mr. William McLean, of New York.

On Saturday a number of lightning bolts struck over the Island from the west. The most damage was in the parish of St. John's, where a bridge, a school, and a house were destroyed, and a number of Mr. Sylvain C. Arsenault was struck.

A man, who was in the parish of St. John's, was struck by lightning, and was killed.

Mr. Charles G. Arsenault, a carpenter, is reported to have been struck and killed.

The telephone lines at Summerside were damaged, and communication was interrupted.

Mr. John Smith of Rocky Point was interviewed. This has been repaired.

Mr. John Smith of Rocky Point was interviewed. This has been repaired.

Two young men, named Irving, were drowned at this point. A copy of the Macmillan's book is to be sent to every one there.

WILLIAM McLean, the carpenter, who was born in Scotland, came to this country for the first time, and was engaged working in the shipyards of the Bay of Fundy.

He is now a carpenter and contractor, and the owner of a house in the city.

CHARLES Clapham, the well-known electrical designer and manufacturer of apparatus, and Reptiles in all its forms, is continuing his experiments in increasing the power of his batteries, and determining the exact time of the year when they are most effective.

The artist is from the family of those families.

He has already illustrated, and is continuing his portraits.

Among those portraits are those of General Gordon, General Grant, and General MacArthur.

He is now at work on a portrait of Mr. George Brown.

He has also done a portrait of Mr. William McLean, of New York.

On Saturday a number of lightning bolts struck over the Island from the west. The most damage was in the parish of St. John's, where a bridge, a school, and a house were destroyed, and a number of Mr. Sylvain C. Arsenault was struck.

A man, who was in the parish of St. John's, was struck by lightning, and was killed.

Mr. Charles G. Arsenault, a carpenter, is reported to have been struck and killed.

The telephone lines at Summerside were damaged, and communication was interrupted.

Mr. John Smith of Rocky Point was interviewed. This has been repaired.

Mr. John Smith of Rocky Point was interviewed. This has been repaired.

Two young men, named Irving, were drowned at this point. A copy of the Macmillan's book is to be sent to every one there.

WILLIAM McLean, the carpenter, who was born in Scotland, came to this country for the first time, and was engaged working in the shipyards of the Bay of Fundy.

He is now a carpenter and contractor, and the owner of a house in the city.

CHARLES Clapham, the well-known electrical designer and manufacturer of apparatus, and Reptiles in all its forms, is continuing his experiments in increasing the power of his batteries, and determining the exact time of the year when they are most effective.

The artist is from the family of those families.

He has already illustrated, and is continuing his portraits.

Among those portraits are those of General Gordon, General Grant, and General MacArthur.

He is now at work on a portrait of Mr. George Brown.

He has also done a portrait of Mr. William McLean, of New York.

On Saturday a number of lightning bolts struck over the Island from the west. The most damage was in the parish of St. John's, where a bridge, a school, and a house were destroyed, and a number of Mr. Sylvain C. Arsenault was struck.

A man, who was in the parish of St. John's, was struck by lightning, and was killed.

Mr. Charles G. Arsenault, a carpenter, is reported to have been struck and killed.

The telephone lines at Summerside were damaged, and communication was interrupted.

Mr. John Smith of Rocky Point was interviewed. This has been repaired.

Mr. John Smith of Rocky Point was interviewed. This has been repaired.

Two young men, named Irving, were drowned at this point. A copy of the Macmillan's book is to be sent to every one there.