LECTURE. -The Kincardine Reporter says: On Monday evening, Rev. Dr. Williams, of Goderich, lectured in the Princess Street Methodist Church, before a very good audience. The subject, "England as seen through Canadian spectacles," was one of absorbing interest from commencement to close. From it we learn that during the past year some $3,200 were raised for church purposes. The indebtedness on building has been reduced during the year, and the officials have strong hopes of making a still greater reduction dur-ing the current year. Rev.
