FRIDAY, JULY 18TH, 1884

HON. MR. BLAKE is reported to have sent word to his friends in Winnipeg that he will be unable to go to the Northwest this summer.

An article on the railway question, from an esteemed contributor, is unavoidably crowded out this week. However, "the old ark's a-moving."

At the nomination for the Muskoka election, at the expiration of the legal time for the nomination of candidates, Mr. Dill, Reformer, was the only person nominated, and he was declared elected by acclamation.

At 2:30 the returning officer allowed Mr. McEachern to be nominated.

The judicial committee of the Privy Council met on Tuesday last to decide upon the three points submitted to them on the boundary award.

The Nelsonville Mountaineer gives the following send off to an old acquaintance:—"Pat Moore, the timber inspector who visited Nelson a few weeks ago does not appear to have a very savory record, and certainly his actions while here were not calculated to inspire any very high confidence."

The Clinton New Era last week took advantage of the cool spell to leech to devote half a column editorially to the puffing of Clinton and the decaying of Goderich, but it never once attempted to show how it was that Clinton has been equalized at only $450,000 for years back, while Goderich has been rated at $1,165,000.

Our contemporary cites the opinions of commercial drummers and such like, but it won't deal with facts and figures. We want it to cease beating about the bush, and to get down to hard pan. Jaw is jaw, but facts are facts.

The first of a series of Reform meetings will be held at Cranbrook on Thursday 24th. inst. at 2 o'clock p.m.

The meeting will be addressed by Sir Richard Cartwright, M.P., Hon. A. M. Ross, Provincial Treasurer, Thos. Gibson, M.P.P., John McMillan, reeve of Hullett and other prominent Reformers.

A cordial invitation is extended to all persons who wish to hear the public issues of the day intelligently discussed. East Huron in this beginning a serious of public demonstrations throughout the riding, is setting a good example to the other constituencies of the county which we hope to see successfully imitated at no distant day.

The people are anxious to listen to exposures of the N. P. frauds, and Tory governmental incapacity, "New is the time, and now is the hour."

MOSES OATES promised that the weather in July would be intolerably warm—in fact, that July would be the hottest month since July, 1868.

Being personally well acquainted with Moses, and knowing that he wasn't given to joking, we took his word for it, and discarded our woolen underwear. We did so to our sorrow, for the thermometer has gone away down as we write this, and instead of a linen duster, it would seem that heavy woollens, thick tweeds and a trusty ulster should be our portion.

If we succumb from the effects of the cold contracted during the present frigid spell we want to have Moses Oates indicted and tried for our murder. There's that dreadful sneeze again—"Kerchoo!" "Kerchoo!" "Kerchoo!" "O, Moses!"

The "twelfth" was duly celebrated in Clinton by the Orange body of this district on Saturday last. The brethren gathered there from the north, the south, the east and the west, and listened with patience to the drum-beating, the life-blowing, and the florid speeches. They say that doctors differ, and so do Orange speakers. Our own Thos. Farrow for instance denied that politics were a factor in Orangism, while John White of Hastings made a straight-out Tory speech. It isn't any of our funeral, but one or other of these gentlemen made a "jolly old ad of himself," as Lord Dunsyre would say. Of course it could not be our own Thomas Farrow, for he is always particular in what he says, even when he states that the N. P. snaffles him to lay larger eggs.

For three successive terms the Democratic candidates for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency have been taken from New York and Indiana. In 1876, Tilden and Hendricks; in 1880, Hancock and English; in 1884, Cleveland and Hendricks. The Democrats seem to be of a persevering nature, and evidently have faith in the injunction of the old song: "If you don't at first succeed, Try, try, try again."

Last week Mr. E. Holmes severed his connection with the Clinton New Era. We take this opportunity of bidding the old man good-bye and wishing him good luck in any enterprise he may engage in. He wasn't always in accord with our views on local questions, but he was a good, square journalist, of honest convictions and fearless expression, all the same. Should he ever see fit to take to quill-driving again we will welcome him back to the editorial ranks, but we sincerely trust he will never of necessity be forced to again tramp the editorial treadmill. The New Era will be conducted henceforward by Mr. Robt. Holmes, and knowing the young man to be a "chip off the old block," we have every reason to believe that the Liberal interests will not suffer at the hands of the new editor of the New Era.

CONTEMPORARY OPINION.

The sayings of the Brethren—Wise and Otherwise—Placed on Record.

HE DIDN'T KNOW.

The financial sage who presides at Ottawa, Sir S. L. Tilley, if we (Halifax Chronicle) remember correctly, speaking in March, 1883, said that "if he were a young man in business, etc., he would clap on all sail so as to enjoy the ten years' breeze of prosperity which was going to blow over this 'Canada of ours.' Well, poor man, he meant well, but he didn't know—he didn't know."

Manitoba Liberal.—Hon. Edward Blake has declared himself in favor of an elective Senate. In this step he will have not only the entire Reform party at his back, but all right-thinking Independents and Conservatives. An invitation for the "old women" to leave their soft seats and fat salaries would cause grief to no one but themselves and the political hucksters to whom they owe their office existence and for whose good pleasure they live, move and have their being.

LOOK AFTER YOUR WELLS.

Hamilton Times.—The Toronto Board of Health will cause all wells in localities served by the city waterworks to be closed up. This is a step in the right direction. Mice, diphtheria and typhoid fever are caused by partaking of water from wells in thickly settled localities, or where the source of supply is too near the manure heap, than many people are aware of. Those who are ignorant or careless need to be protected against themselves, and educated to have greater regard for the welfare not of themselves and families alone, but of the whole community.

WHY NOT BLAME THE TORIES.

London Advertiser.—The 12th of July orations throughout the country seem to have been conducted generally on the established plan, and were devoted to abusing Mr. Blake and the Liberals because the Orange Act of Incorporation was defeated. If only the Reformers had voted for it, is the cry, it would have carried. Doubtless, and so it would if the Tories had voted for it. The Tory party had the active support of the Orange order for years; the Tory party controls Parliament—having about a two-thirds majority; it would only have been common gratitude for the Tories to have passed the Orange Bill. The Liberals have been opposed by the Orangemen in every election for years past, and the latter have no claim to liberal support. Yet the Liberals get the abuse for the defeat of the bill, while there is no censure for the Tories, who might have carried it had they wished to do so. Nothing could more clearly indicate the political character of the organization.

R. v. T. Goldsmith's Denial.

Among the false statements made by the Anti-Scott Act speakers at Auburn a fortnight ago was one to the effect that Rev. T. Goldsmith, of Hamilton, formerly of Seaford, was opposed to the Act. R. Adams, Vice-President of Hullett Scott Act Alliance, wrote to Mr. Goldsmith, asking him if it were so. Those of Mr. Goldsmith's temperance friends who were inclined to accept the statement, will be delighted to see the following reply:

HAMILTON, July 8, 1884.

DEAR SIR,—I am in receipt of yours of the 5th current. I have authorized no statement as to my opinions ament the Scott Act. I may say I am not opposed to any measure that may abate the drinking sin of the day. I believe temperance to be a legitimate subject for legislation, and my only objection to the Scott Act is that it does not go far enough. I think no local option act can ever meet the whole difficulty. I go in for a general prohibition of manufacture and sale wholesale and retail of the whole business, and whatever action may lead up to this I look upon with favor. I am yours truly, T. GOLDSMITH.

The Megantic Election.

QUEBEC, July 11.—The Megantic Federal election, which has been engaging public attention for some time past, especially in this Province, came off today, resulting in favor of Hon. E. Langelier, mayor of Quebec, by a majority of 31 votes. The contest was a hot and bitter one, and the Liberals congratulate themselves on their success in opposition to Hon. Messrs. Langevin, Caron and Pope, who worked energetically for the Conservative candidate. Mr. Frechette won the seat at the last Dominion elections for the Conservatives by 119 of a majority.

THAT "WINDY HUMBUB."

An Ignominious Exposure—The "Hair-Wash" Man Brought to Book.

A week or ten days ago a low-bred fellow styling himself "Professor" Johnson, came to town and announced himself to be a phrenologist. He made his debut on a packing-case on the court house square, and with the aid of a bell and a list of terms sounded his own praises long and loudly. He was not content with talking about phrenology, but blazed away at the Scott Act, the Salvation Army, the reputation of ministers, public morality, and other matters of which he knew nothing. The Scott Act, which has always been opposed to public and private frauds, drew attention to the ignorance of the fellow, and exposed him as a "windy humbug." For doing so THE SIGNAL and its proprietors were made the objects of the so-called "professor's" wrath, and that worthy set to work to denigrate the paper and its proprietors. He held a public meeting on the court-house square on Monday evening, to reply to the remarks of this journal. About eight o'clock along came the alleged "professor" in a top-buggy, and after posting in front of the Huron hotel. The crowd began to gather and the "humbub" started his "oration." THE SIGNAL and its proprietors were bespattered by the fellow with abusive language, delivered without regard to grammar, and with no attempt at pronunciation. There was a continuous flow of lies and swash, and swash and lies from first to last. During his discourse he got on the Scott Act, and showed his ignorance of the question, after which he took another slap at THE SIGNAL, and he referred to the Salvation Army, then he gave himself a character for probity, and sounded his praises in great shape. He concluded his regurgitated by telling over and over again what b-a-a-d men the proprietors of THE SIGNAL were, and what a first-class phrenologist he was. After the "humbub" had taken his seat a cry was raised for the editor of THE SIGNAL to reply to the swashbuckler, and Mr. D. McGillivuddy rose to his feet, amidst loud applause, and addressed the large gathering. He was not in the habit of speaking after tramps of the stripe of the person who had just sat down, but the blackguard had to get his deserts, and he hoped his friends would pardon him on this occasion if he stepped out of his usual courteous course, and beat a blackguard at his own game. He then "waxed" his wit on a glib and able public. He (the speaker) had written the item against the fellow, in the public interest, and denounced him now to his face as a "humbub" of the worst stripe. The "professor" talked about the Scott Act, and then he referred to the speaker that he had never read a clause of it. The "professor" knew nothing about the Scott Act, and just as much about phrenology. The fellow had boasted of being the best cutler in several of the cities; then how did it come that he was turning the country as a "faki" instead of settling down to honest labor? The speaker here gave an exhibition in imitation of the "professor's" style of examining heads which drew loud cheers from the crowd. He denounced Johnson as a humbug and a "professor" who had written the item against the fellow, in the public interest, and denounced him now to his face as a "humbub" of the worst stripe.

THE PEOPLE WHO HAVE BEEN GULLED BY THIS ILLITERATE BUT CHEEKY HUMBUB, JOHNSTON, WILL NOW HAVE AN OPPORTUNITY TO MEDITATE UPON THEIR FOOLISHNESS IN PAYING MONEY FOR PHRENOLOGICAL CHARTS TO THE ILLITERATE FELLOW; AND THE PERSON WHO CHUMMED WITH HIM WHILE HE WAS IN TOWN, AND UPHELD HIM AS THEIR CHOSEN CHAMPION ARE NOW AT LIBERTY TO RUMINATE THAT THEY HAVE NEITHER ADDED TO THEIR SOCIAL STATUS NOR HELPED THE CAUSE WHICH THEY ESPOUSE. THE SIGNAL WANTS TO SEE ANGUS JOHNSON'S "PHRENOLOGICAL" CHARTS, PHRENOLOGY AND OTHER HUMBUBS, PASSED AROUND BY THE ONTARIO PRESS.

"PROFESSOR" JOHNSON ARRESTED.

At 2:30 p.m. on Thursday the following telegram was received from Dresden by constable Yule.

Dresden, July 17.

Arrest A. Johnson, for gaol breaking. Let me know at once.

N. WAFFLE, Chief Police.

Constable Yule in company with constable McKay immediately started out in search of Johnson, and succeeded in arresting him just as he was on the point of boarding the 3:15 train to leave town. He was at once brought to gaol, where he now lies awaiting the arrival of constable Waffle, of Dresden.

This will be more food for reflection for Johnson's chums in town.

The Conspiracy Case.

Toronto News (Ind.).

The investigation into the conspiracy case by the Royal commission presided over by Vice-Chancellor Proudfoot, Judge Scott, of the county of Peel, and Judge Senkler, of the county of Lincoln, begins today at Osgood Hall. A very large number of witnesses have been subpoenaed, including prominent and less known politicians of both parties, and government officials, and judging from the length of the list the inquiry is likely to occupy several weeks.

The investigation is not strictly speaking, of a judicial character. The commission has no power to impose any penalty on any one who may be incriminated by the evidence. The object of the inquiry is simply to get at the facts, and it is to be hoped that the matter will be thoroughly sifted to the bottom. The composition of the commission is a guarantee that their proceedings will be conducted in a spirit of impartiality.

This proceeding being non-judicial, will not in any way clash with the appearance of the criminal prosecution instituted against those accused of conspiracy and at present stayed until the question of whether the offence charged is a crime of which the law can take cognizance is settled. It is not creditable to our legal system that there should be any doubt at all upon that matter. Should the evidence adduced before the commission prove an attempt to bribe members of the legislature, it ought to have the effect of rousing public opinion to demand the enactment of a law inflicting severe penalties to such offences in the future, in case the existing law is insufficient to punish them.

The best fielding nine from the National League players from the averages to July 1 would be: Gavino, p.; Gilligan, c.; Start, 1b.; Collins, 2b.; Sutton 3b.; Force, s. a.; Hernung, 1. f.; Gore, c. f.; Evans, r. f. Connor leads the league in batting, with an average of .349. Sutton is a close second with .345. O'Rourke is third.

COUNTY CURRENCY.

Stems from all Parts of Huron got on the News Exchange.

Harry Cornack, of Brussels, has accepted a remunerative position in the office of the Great North-Western Telegraph Company in Toronto.

A horse belonging to D. Strachan, Brussels, was choked to death last Tuesday evening. The animal had been tied to the fence to eat grass, and got tangled in the rope somehow, and before help arrived was dead.

A certain man in Morris professes to have taken out of a sand pit a clover root over nine feet long. The strangest part of the assertion is that the said gentleman affirms he did not get the full root, as some of it was buried in the clay below the sand.

A very brilliant meteor was observed in Brussels on Thursday night of last week. It swept across the sky in a north westerly direction, bursting at last into a thousand pieces. During its passage it had all the appearance of an immense rocket with a very brilliant blue head and a long sinuous phosphorescent tail.

Robt. Copeland, Lucknow, recently passed a very creditable examination at the Ontario College of Pharmacy at Toronto. He is now a full fledged druggist, and has taken full control of the drug business lately carried on by G. W. Berry in that village. "Robt's" friends no doubt, will be much pleased to learn of his success.

There has been quite a sensation in Sunshine for some time past. Several persons whose veracity we cannot doubt, state that there has been seen a ghost (or something very like one) in the woods on the south side of the concession. Several hen-roosts have suffered of late, which is one proof that "the" "ghost" has a good appetite.

It is the intention of the Lucknow Caledonian Society this year to hold a grand quoining tournament on Sept. 9th, the day previous to their annual games, open to the world. Prizes will be offered sufficiently large to attract all the quiet pitchers of note in Canada, as well as those interested in the game. It is expected that railway arrangements, now in progress, will be effected, whereby excursion tickets will be issued at greatly reduced rates, good for three days.

D. M. J. Sullivan, of Bay City, and Archie Scott, of Dundas, to compete against A. C. Reid and Alby Robinson, of Parkhill, for $500—$250 a side—at that place, on July 12th, for the following events:—1st. running high jump; 2nd. running long jump; 3rd. high and kick; 4th. hop-step-and-jump; 5th. 100 yards race; 6th. 150 yards hurdle race; 7th. standing jump, the couple taking four out of the seven events to be declared the winners. D. McKenzie, of London, was stakeholder. Scott and Sullivan were formerly residents of Brussels. The Parkhill men won.

Last Tuesday W. E. Kerr left London city at 8 a.m. on his bicycle, rode to Lucan and made a short stop, reached Exeter for dinner then on through Brucefield to Seaford where he stopped for ever an hour and then took the road north for Brussels where he arrived at 8 o'clock p.m. When the warm weather, dusty roads and the amount of new gravel on the roads is taken into account it was a long ride. The distance is 54 miles. The bicycle is a 54 inch machine of the British Challenge make.—Brussels Post.

A Scott Act Decision.

It has been decided by the courts in New Brunswick, Chief Justice Allen presiding, that liquor supplied by brewers or others for sale in a county in which the Scott Act is in force cannot be used for the sale as a contribution to an illegal act. This is worth keeping in view by the liquor manufacturers and dealers. In the New Brunswick case the goods were originally sold in a county where their sale was legal, but they were sold knowingly to be retailed in a county in which their sale was illegal. The case of people who violate the law are not the most respectable, and it is probable that many of those who are supplied with liquor for sale in a Scott Act county will find their supply cut off if this decision be sustained by the higher courts. Retail dealers who do not hesitate to violate the law by selling liquor under such circumstances would certainly not hesitate at swindling those who supplied them with the liquor if they were satisfied that they could not be compelled to pay the price of it.

Dr. Grant on Pincking.

Dr. Grant says:—"Well even if you are 'plucked' you can come up for a post mortem you know." and Inspector McLennan declares that "a man is not made till he has been 'plucked' once or twice," still notwithstanding these crumbs of comfort the experience is not a pleasant one. In this article, however, we do not mean to whine over the slaughter of the innocents that has lately taken place. In the great majority of cases it was simply the reaping of what has been sown during the term. Taker in the proper spirit these defeats really mean victory.

Tilden Approves.

New York, July 12.—Tilden is represented as saying that the nomination of Cleveland was a good one. The governor, he said, was very popular outside of New York State. There was considerable opposition to him in different sections of the state, however, and he did not think some of his actions had met with general approval. Hendricks had given strength to the ticket, particularly Indians and the west in general, and will have great weight in the elections in October.

An Election on a Petition for the Repeal of the Canada Temperance Act.

An election on a petition for the repeal of the Canada Temperance Act will be held in the county of Westmoreland, N. B., on the 14th Aug. Watch it.

Square Talk from a Cricketer.

We commend for perusal of sporting editors and reporters of cricket matches, the following letter, from the genial captain of the London asylum club to our contemporary the London Advertiser. It has something of the true ring about it.

NOT INCLINED TO BE BOASTFUL.

To the Editor of the Advertiser.

Among the cricket notes in this morning's Advertiser was one to the effect that the London Asylum club had not been defeated this year. Besides avowing of vain glory, such comments seem to me to add nothing to the reputation of any club, either for prowess or courtesy. To my mind the game of cricket should be played for the social pleasure and physical good connected with it, and the winning or losing of any match, or any number of matches, should be considered entirely secondary, and of the nature of an accident, as it often is. As captain of the Asylum Cricket Club I respectfully protest against its fortunate record thus far being used in a vaunting or boastful way for the delectation of Advertiser readers who may happen to have an interest in cricket. Yours truly, N. A. BREMER.

Violent Hailstorm in Markham.

A violent hailstorm broke over the township of Markham on Saturday afternoon, doing considerable damage all along the 6th concession. Such a storm was never witnessed in the township before. Some of the stones were as large as hen's eggs, and fell with such force as to leave large lumps on the backs of cattle that happened to be out of doors. In fact the fences are covered with little holes, and have the appearance of having been well pounded with a hammer. The parties who appear to suffer the heaviest loss are:—Mr. Wm. Milliken, of Hagerman's Corners. On a farm of 175 acres, Mr. Milliken says, there will hardly be a bushel of grain. Mr. Hagerman's farm of 100 acres is also in a dilapidated condition, the storm making a clean sweep of all his crop. Messrs. Jesse, Noble, Stroheller, French, Wetherall, and Stonehouse all suffered loss more or less. In fact there is scarcely one of these farmers who will have enough feed for his stock. However, although the loss is heavy they all feel thankful that the storm was not accompanied by a strong wind, for if such had been the case the damage would undoubtedly have been much greater.

Prudent Patriots.

Stories are being told about the part played by the rival presidential candidates during the war. History is dumb as to the great achievements of either the Blaine division or the Cleveland division in the rebellion. The fact is that both Blaine and Cleveland, instead of going to the war themselves, sent substitutes. This was much the safer plan, and the result is that instead of these great rivals filling soldiers' graves, or stamping the country with a wooden leg apiece, they have been preserved to serve their country in a more important capacity, and in the approaching campaign will stump the country with both legs. Blaine will have the advantage, however, as he is backed up on his ticket by a real general, who expects to capture the soldiers' vote.

The Alleviate Story.

The officials of the Marine and Fisheries Department are now disposed to accept Seth Green's assertions that the millions of dead fish floating on Lake Ontario are alive and not young shad hatched at his Rochester establishment. They ask how it is if the fish are really young shad that none of the parent fish are caught in the lake? The answer is caught in the St. Lawrence in Lake Francis, or in any other stream in communication with Lake Ontario, and it is considered impossible that the parent shad can exist in the lake in quantities sufficient to produce millions of fry without some being caught in the fish traps. Perhaps Mr. Green will be able to explain this mystery for Minister McLean's benefit.

A Foolish Joke.

COMBOURG, July 14.—On Saturday last Lena Boswell was washing clothes when she was approached by Minnie Stillwell, who took up a bottle lying on the window, and telling her that she would amount her with "holy water," proceeded to pour the liquid on the young girl's head. The victim commenced to scream, and soon all the mill was in an uproar, and the liquid was found to be vitriol. The side of the young girl's face as well as her neck and arms are seriously burned. She will be marked for life.

Literary Notes.

The August Harper's will be especially noteworthy for its papers on American places—"The Gateway of Boston," in which W. H. Ridway describes and Messrs. Halseell and Barrett picture Boston Harbor; Salt Lake City, described by Ernest Ingersoll, with fifteen illustrations; and Richmond Springs, a paper with special reference to their medicinal waters, by F. J. Nett, M.D. Mr. Boughton will continue his chatty "Artist Strolls in Holland" in company with Mr. Abbey. Art will be represented by a paper on the work of the "Associated Artists" by Mrs. Harrison, with charming illustrations of the needlework designs of Mrs. Wheeler; Miss Dora Wheeler, and others, as well as by the frontispiece reproduction of Mr. Dewing's rose-painting, "A Prelude," sport, by "Antelope Hunting in Montana," with illustrations by Beard and Frost; history, by the first illustrated paper on "The Great Hall of William Rufus," by Treadwell Walden. William Black's and E. P. Roe's novels will have their usual superb illustrations by Abbey, Gibson, and Dielman, and more of the charming landscape illustrations by Alfred Parsons will accompany further instalments of Mr. Sherry's romances, "Transcripts from Nature." There will also be stories and poems by Mrs. Macquoid, Mr. Byner, Lucy Lamour, Mrs. Fields, and others. A paper on "The Building of the Muscle" will be contributed by Julian Hawthorne.
