Boston Helps Sealing Fund.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir.—It is with great pleasure that the Newfoundlanders of Boston join with their fellow-countrymen all over the world in helping to swell the subscription fund for the families and dependents of those who lost their lives by the recent disaster.

Boston's total collected to date, is close on $8,000, and when amounts from other sources are turned in, we expect to close the fund with something like $20,000. Owing to the industrial situation of this great Republic, not being in a flourishing condition, at the present time, and the native citizen, not being conversant enough with the circumstances of the disaster, collections by those reasons, have been somewhat hampered, but from a generous and charitable source the people of Boston are to be congratulated in the help and assistance that they have rendered us.

On Sunday night, April 26th, an illustrated lecture on the "Ancient Colony of Newfoundland," and her people was given in Boston College Hall by J. J. McAuliffe to an audience of from six to eight hundred Newfoundlanders. The lecturer opened his discourse giving in detail the early history of Newfoundland, its discovery by Cabot and numerous incidents of early years; then came the views of Newfoundland in moving pictures which all present were anxious to see, and as each picture appeared it was heartily applauded. Among some of the principal shown were St. John's from Battery Road, the Narrows, Regatta Day on Quidi Vidi, the new Court House, Reid Nfld. Co.'s Station and Dry Dock, Haymarket Square and the old Custom House, all the principal churches and public buildings in St. John's were shown both before the fire of 1892 and after. Considerable laughter was indulged in when the picture of Haymarket Square was shown, and of the farmer disposing of his hay; also when the sagacious and clever animal, known the world over as the Newfoundland dog. Particular attention was attracted to the picture of the sealing fleet, which comprised sealers leaving for the icebergs, hauling and panning seals, sealers strayed from their ships, steamers picking up seals, steamers jammed and steamers landing seals. All eyes were centred on this picture, as it displayed the incidents of the greatest sealing disaster known in the history of sealing. Bell Island Mines, Tilt Cove, Fortune Harbor, Hr. Grace, Carbonear, Trinity, Bonavista, Torbay, Petty Harbor, all came in for their share and nearly every town and village and point of vantage in the island, that was interesting, was shown. Its industries, manufacturing devices, agriculture and mineral resources were forcibly described. Its privileges as a sportsman's paradise and health resort was also hinted at, and as each picture was presented it brought back to every one present past recollections of their native home. For two and a half hours the audience were all as if they were in Newfoundland. The proceeds, which amounted to over $200 net, was turned over to the sealers relief fund. In the coming week a social and ball is to be given by the Newfoundland Charitable Society to help to swell the relief fund, and a very interesting and pleasant time is anticipated. The next lecture to be given is by one of Newfoundland's ablest sons, the Rev. Alan Hudson, of Brocton, Mass., who will speak to a South Boston audience on Newfoundland; its resources advantages and attractions.

Trusting that I have not encroached too much on your valuable space, and wishing the Telegram the continued success that it justly deserves.

I remain,
Yours very truly,
P. A. BUCKLEY.

A Man of the People

AT THE CRESCENT.

Donald McDonald, Ramona Langley, Max Aster and Lee Morris.

Every change of programme at the Crescent Picture Palace, the House of Features, sees new pictures but very often the same performers who are the world's best known in movie life. The last bill showed Maurice Costello Pearl White and several others who have reached the top mark in their profession. To-day we have Donald McDonald, Ramona Langley, Max Aster and Lee Morris.

"The Heart of an Artist" is the feature subject, a Crystal drama of merit. "A Man of the People" is a neoteric western story with Donald McDonald and Ramona Langley. "A Legacy of Happiness," an Essany special. "The Tramp Dentist" is a comedy where Max Aster and Lee Morris make good. Mr. Sidney Earnshaw sings Donald Brian's musical hit, "I'm Looking for an Irish Husband."

A big two reel feature is booked for Friday and Saturday, "When Urasu Threw the Bull," a Nestor burlesque on Quo Vadis.

Fire Last Midnight.

Shortly before last midnight, the Central and Eastern Companies were summoned to the Empire Wood Working Co.'s factory where a slight fire was in progress, which might have resulted disastrously but for the vigilance of the watchmen, and the promptness of the firemen who were on the scene so quickly after the alarm. The blaze was confined to the drying room, and it supposed to have been caused by the carelessness of two uninvited guests who apparently sought the drying room for lodgings. As the watchman was making his usual rounds he visited the drying room and upon opening the door found the place filled with smoke, and hurriedly investigating the cause, noticed a man's coat hanging on the end of a board, whence the fire came. Rushing to the scene to grab the coat he saw two men asleep on a pile of lumber in the room, where the ceiling was now ablaze. He aroused the sleepers, who were apparently half suffocated, and hurried to the East End Fire Hall and gave the alarm. When the firemen arrived the sleepers had vanished, and the blaze had made considerable headway. Two streams of water were directed on the flame, and the situation was soon controlled. The fire was extinguished within a few minutes, without any serious damage being done. The police are endeavouring to capture the persons who were responsible for the outbreak, and have a full description of them from the watchman, to whom they are unknown. How the fire really occurred is only a matter of conjecture, but it is supposed that the "lodgers" were smoking before retiring, as it was in their vicinity the fire had its origin.

SUSPECTS ARRESTED.

This morning, William Candow and Peter Quirk were arrested by Sergeant Mackey and Constable O'Flaherty, on suspicion of being the parties who were asleep in the drying room of the Empire Factory when the fire broke out last night.

Where Responsibility Lies.

No matter how large, or how small, a business may be, nobody can deny that its Office is the nerve centre of the firm. Every transaction, important or trivial, must be recorded at the Office. An order is received at the Office, its history is recorded at the Office, and finally payment is received at the Office. If the Office makes an error the firm stands the loss. That's why you must be sure that your office is moderately and dependably equipped for the care of all important papers. To do this effectively you need the up-to-date equipment of the "GLOBE-WALKER CO." When sixty offices in St. John's have found this necessity this equipment can surely be of use to you. Mr. Percie Johnson represents this world known firm in Newfoundland.—01714

Hal And Bert Tait.

They returned by the S. S. Digby a day or two ago Dr. Tait's two sons, who had been away finishing up their University course of study. Both were highly successful—Mr. Harold taking the degree of Doctor of Medicine and Master of Surgery at Dalhousie University, and at the same time passing his examination and taking the diploma of The Provincial Medical Board. These privileges give him the right to practice in Britain and in certain British Colonies and other countries without further examination. It also admits to the army and other medical services.

Bert on the other hand, who was a Rhodes scholar and holds the degree of B. A. from Oxford has added to his arms matriculation the further Degree of B.C.L. from King's University. He is apprenticed to Mr. A. B. Morine and in a short time will be eligible to present himself to the Law Society for admission to the Bar. We congratulate the parents of these two young men and bespeak for them a brilliant career. Both boys receive their preparatory education at Bishop Field College, and both have done honor to their Alma Mater.

The Wonderful Edison Talking Pictures.

The original seven wonders of the world have undergone such modification that if to-day the dignitaries who designated them were asked to enumerate the marvels of nature and of men's creation, they would be unanimous in proclaiming "Thomas A. Edison one of the present wonders of the earth. The wizard's generally conceded most wonderful invention is the Kinotophone, or Talking Picture, which is completely revolutionizing the amusement world. St. John's will see these genuine Edison Talking Pictures for the first time at the Casino Theatre, and judging by the interest manifested by local amusement seekers in the forthcoming engagement it will be well to get one's seat early. The Edison Talking Pictures are not simply moving pictures, but laughing, talking and singing figures, and those who see them are simply carried away with them.

A Series of Fires.

At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon an alarm was sent in from box 253, indicating the Central and East End Companies to Fleming Street where a slight fire was in progress in the house of Mr. A. Doyle, caused by sparks from the chimney igniting some shingles on the roof. The use of the chemical extinguished the blaze before much damage was done. Very soon after an alarm came in from box 21 on Adelaide Street and the West End and Central firemen responded to George Street, finding a room in the upper flat of Mr. James Maclean's house on fire. Though the women used the chemical to put out the blaze yet the fire was practically quenched by Constable Nugent through the aid of a Pyrene extinguisher which was procured at the Post Office. The origin of the fire is not definitely known, though it is supposed to be caused by a defective chimney.

At 6 o'clock a verbal alarm called the East End men to a house on York Street occupied by a family named Confias. The chimney was on fire, but in a few minutes through the efforts of Capt. Trebble, the danger was removed.
