Concert at Channel

On Thursday and Friday evenings last the Parish Hall. Channel, was the scene of one of the most successful concerts ever put on the boards and the performance reflects the very greatest credit upon those who were responsible for such a brilliant entertainment. Notwithstanding many initial difficulties the management, with a worthy determination, worked incessantly to bring the affair to such a state of excellence as put all previous efforts of a similar nature completely in the shade. The proceeds, which amounted to the handsome sum of one hundred and sixty dollars, will be devoted to one of the Patriotic Funds. It may be considered invidious to mention names, but one really cannot help complimenting Miss Mabel Meade and Miss Maud Pike, both of whom contributed so largely toward the happy termination. The latter young lady was the accompanist. Appended is the programme: Chorus-"We'll meet our friends at home on Xmas morning."

Recitation-Mr. N. S. Parsons. Dialogue—"Why young men don't marry." 2 acts.

Reading-Mr. G. Moore. Duet-Miss Marion Forsey, Mr. A Clarke

Llewellyn Club.

FINAL MEETING. The members of the Llewellyn Club held their final meeting for the season last night at Canon Wood Hall. Rev. Dr. Jones presiding. The proceedings opened with a short concert. Those taking part were Rev. C. E. Moulton, Messrs. H. J. Earle, H. Y. Mott, G. McDonald and C. Noonan.

Owing to professional duties calling him elsewhere, Major C. Macpherson, who was to have addressed the meeting on his experiences of the war, was unable to attend, but in his absence the notes which he had prepared were read by the Rector. The paper, which was a most interesting one, dealt mainly with the work of the Red Cross Societies.

Speeches were made by Messrs, H Y. Mott, R. J. Devereaux, C. E. Hunt and the Rev. Dr. Jones. The Rector spoke at length on the work of the club during the past year.

GEM CIGARETTES AT ROSSLEY'S. All this week Miss Bonnie Rossley will recite that beautiful poem "Fags" and will distribute Gem cigarettes among the audience, those are not intended for boys. The sketch is one long laugh and the pictures are good also. On next Tuesday's Country Store there will be many presents of Gem cigarettes given away by the hundred, several sacks of flour, groceries, dry goods, glass and china with several silver pieces; again there is in preparation a very novel act, all new Indian costumes with a delightful plot written by Mrs. Rossley; something different to any thing seen before. Big show to-night; don't miss it.
