FALL IMPORTATIONS!

J. CHARLESWORTH & Co.

44 YONGE-ST., TORONTO.

We have the pleasure of informing our customers and the Trade generally that we are now in the receipt of our Fall Importations, and are showing a full assortment of NEW GOODS in each Department.

Having taken advantage of the late depression in the Manufacturing districts, we have been enabled to secure Cheap Lines in almost every Class of Goods. We would call the special attention of our friends to several large lots of Plain and Fancy Winceys, which we think particularly good value.

Our Stock of Fancy Dress Goods, Shawls, Hosiery, Cloves, and Fancy Wool Goods, will be unusually complete.

We would also mention as worthy of notice Plain and Fancy Flannels, Blankets, Mantle Cloths and Trowsers.

We have imported a more Complete Stock of Staple Goods than we have hitherto offered, and feel confident in inviting an early inspection.

Our stock will be kept assorted by weekly arrivals of New Goods during the season.

IRISH ELECTION.—Mr. Wm. Johnston, of Ballykilbeg, the well known Orangeman who suffered imprisonment under the Party Procession Act, has been elected to the seat of the electors of Belfast. He thinks a re-distribution of seats necessary to complete the work of reform in Ireland, a larger share being apportioned to Ulster. He says he is determinedly opposed to a system of universal endowment, "an unhappy movement," he says, "originated by Lord Mayo." He would give a tenfold compensation by law for unexhausted and advantageous improvements, and is in favour of a marriage law, "perfect freedom of election," religious but no sectarian education, and the repeal of the Party Procession Act.

SPAIN BEFORE THE REVOLT.—The following extract from the letter of the Paris correspondent of the London Times, written on the 14th of September, gives some idea of the condition of Spain immediately before the late rising:—"Nothing," says he, "can be worse than the state of affairs in Spain; nothing more infamous than the tyranny of the Government. It was hoped, about seven years ago, that the country was taking a start; there were some slight signs of a revival soon after the Morocco war. But that hope was speedily dissipated, and since then the country has been sunk in a slough of despond. All trade and enterprise have declined; many persons have been ruined; nobody knows what to expect or how soon a convulsion may come. By some of the refugees important events have been predicted for the present month, but there is every appearance that it will pass quietly in Spain as elsewhere. In O'Donnell and Narvaez, great though their faults were and numerous the cruelties they committed, Spain unquestionably lost the two most energetic and adroit men she possessed, and the two who were most skilled in the art of government. It may be strange to give even praise thus qualified to such blood-stained and unscrupulous men as Narvaez, of whom the story goes in Spain, that when his confessor, standing by his death bed, adjured him to forgive his enemies, he replied, in accents weak from the approach of dissolution, that 'he had none; he had shot them all.' But some allowance must be made for the circumstances of the time and the peculiarities of the Spanish character, and certainly, if anything could possibly make one regret Narvaez, it would be the fact that he has been succeeded by Gonzalez Bravo."
