Annual Meeting of the West Middlesex Association.

Officers Chosen for the Coming Year.

M. P., and Others - County Council Act and Other Important Measures Discussed - Large and Representative Gathering at Mount Brydges.

The routine of the west riding hamlet, Mount Brydges, was broken in upon yesterday considerably. The occasion was the annual meeting of the Liberal Association, and representatives of every part of the riding were present. Local Reform voters turned out strong to welcome their friends from adjacent municipalities. The Hon. Geo. W. Ross, Minister of Education, was greatly felt. Owing to the session of the Legislature being now in progress it was impossible for him to attend. Their Dominion representative, Mr. W. S. Calvert, M.P., was present, however. Among others were Messrs. John Watterworth, ex-M.P.; Thomas Harold, Mosa; A. Stuart, Glencoe; D. Ross, London; Dr. McKillop, Wardsville; B. L. Moorehouse, Newbury; A. Douglas and Geo. Wm.
