of these commodities were offered; butter was a trifle higher, at 14c to 16c for crocks and 15c to 17c for pound rolls. Eggs were in good demand, at 14c per dozen, by the basket

Apples were scarce, at 90c per bag, or $1.75 to $2 per barrel the stock market again today, and the transactions are even smaller than yesgood demand, at 40c to 50c per dozen; lettuce, radishes, and green onions sold at 40c per dozen. What poultry was offered was held by the hucksters, at $1 to $1.25 per pair for dressed chickens, and 16c to 17c per lb market. Consolidated Gas broke sharply, and during the first hour furnished one-third of the total transactions. The break in that quarter is supposed to represent information that the governor will veto the gas bill. Amalgamated for turkeys.

Dressed Hogs—About a dozen carcase Copper, preferred, showed some strength. Louisville and Nashville and United per cwt.
Butchers' Meats—There was a good de-mand for the small supply offered; beef Louisville and Nashville and Chited States Realty, specialties of a certain house, showed some weakness. There was some fair buying of steel in the early trading, but it had no effect. The market trading, but it had no effect. The market trading, but it had no effect. The market trading but it had no effect. is stupid, and there is nothing worthy of comment in it.

Father Staniey, who is attached to St. Peter's Catheoral here, was in the victoria, but with great presence of mind jumped and saved himself a few yards from the track.

When picked up Waters was in a parting dazed condition. Dr. Jarvis, who was in the neighborhood at the time, attended him, and had him removed to the hospital in the ambulance. The man fortunately was not killed, though it was a narrow escape, and he only suffered from an exceedingly bad shaking up. There was no sign of a fracture of the study, and the interment at St. Peter's Cemetery.

There was no sign of a fracture of the badly cut, and he bled profusely. His hip was hurt, but not broken. He was not unconscious, and managed to ask first of all if the priest was hurt, and expressed his pleacure when he heard that he was not. Father Stanley was returning from a funeral, and was coming south on Maitland street, being driven by Waters. As they approached the track, where more than one accident has occurred, the priest looked to see if there was a watchman, and as there was none kept a lookout for a train. They were almost on the track, when he noticed the train loom up in sight, coming at a good rate of speed. He threw himself from the rig and thus saved himself.

•••••• THE BYRON BRIDGE

Westminster and London Councils May Not Change the Site.

It is probable that site of the Byron bridge, which was wrecked by the flood I. — Leslie Stuart, Mary Noyes, of this spring, will not be changed. A Part II.—Mary Hall, Maggie Paisley, meeting of the township councils of London and Westminster was held yesterday at the bridge, and from the discussion it seemed that a better site could not, perhaps, be chosen, although the present one was not by all General Booth, of the Salvation means desirable. DISAPPEARED FROM HOME

Mrs. E. J. Orendorff Leaves at an Early Hour-Cannot Be Found.

The family and friends of Mrs E J Orendorff, of 344 William street, are in a state of anxiety today over her continued absence from home. Mrs. Orendorff left home this morning about 4 o'clock, and up to 3 o'clock this afternoon she had not been found, although parties were searching in every this part of the city for her.

Mrs. Orendorff is a lady about 60 years of age, and since Christmas has been ill, suffering from nervous prostration. She is a small, frail woman. and when she left home she wore a black skirt, striped waist, and a small

As soon as her departure became known, the members of the family instituted a search, but they have been unable to find her. It is hoped that before the day is over Mrs. Orendorff will be located.
