THEIR CANADIAN QUARTERS Big American Concern to Make Headquarters at Windsor.

Windsor, Ont., April 24. - Negotiations are in progress for the sale of the Windsor Turned Goods Company, of this city, to a large American concern, which controls a number of factories in the United States. The proposition has been presented to the local shareholders and will probably be shareholders in London and Stratford were consulted.

If the sale goes through, Windsor will become the Canadian headquarters for the American enterprise, which practically controls the market of turned goods in the States.

The council is now in a deadlock over the franchise concessions for the Windsor, Essex and Lake Shore line. This company attempted to enter the city by starting construction, but the employes were stopped. At the meeting last night a resolution was carded to grant the company permission to proceed, but the aldermen in favor of the concession did not muster sufficient strength to move a suspension of the rules. The vote stood 7 to 5, just one short of the required two-thirds majority. Work on the road is at a standstill now. Word has now been received from
