Florence Kinrade's Testimony Last Night Leaves Them as Baffled as at First.

Hamilton, March 11.-There is nothing new in the Kinrade case today. The general impression seems to be that Miss Florence Kinrade's testimony last night tually put the police up in the air. Ther is an impression that she was brought on late, and asked so many questions to break her down be fore reaching the actual story of the murder. In this, the authorities failed. The first witness tonight will be Mrs Kinrade, who will be followed by her wo sons and the doctors. The Kinrade family has effectually concealed tself, and is living in seclusion. It is innounced today that the detectives might dig up the sewer trap outside the Kinrade home to see if the revolver had gone down the sewer and stopped

Owing to the fact that Mr. Kelly, a teacher on the Collegiate staff, was put into the high school merely on a permit, and as he has not as yet passed an examination for the firstclass certificate he has been disqualified, and must go before the faculty of necessary examination Assistant Principal Gordon, of Chesley avenue, has been assigned to the vacancy. A ady substitute will probably be placed in charge of the seventh grade at cation is discriminating against the changes are coming too rapidly for the welfare of the students.

The employees of the Grand Trunk carshops are already getting into line for the big annual picnic, and hove forwarded a petition to Montreal asking that the excursion be run to Detroit if possible. Niagara Fals was also spoken of, but the Detroit trip was avored by the majority. The committee in charge of the preparations are now waiting for the date to be fixed by the head offices in Montreal, and will then go ahead in earnest. Owing to several hitches the picnic was cancelled last year, but a much better affair will probably result this
