

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

THE LOCAL MARKET

Incessant rains, causing bad roads, have made the local market very small this week. Trading has remained slow in consequence, with all prices steady. The demand in all lines is small, with no indication of a change.

Hay, usually the best selling commodity on Friday, brought no vendors to the market this morning. Prices will consequently remain steady until Saturday.

As is usual on Friday, no vegetables were offered from the wagons. Potatoes are selling slowly at 60c per bushel retail, 50c wholesale, and 50c retail per bag. Apples are the only fruit offered, at 50c to 60c.

Butter is somewhat higher in price. Eggs are 27c; poultry retail, is selling from 25c to 30c, and poultry at 25c to 30c.

Live stock is firm, with the exception of small pigs, which are selling for $3 to $3.50 per pair.

Poultry prices are steady since Monday's break selling. Old fowl are selling for 10c per lb. Turkeys are 11c to 12c; ducks are 11c to 12c; geese are 12c to 13c per lb.

Butchers' meats are steady.
