Winners Scored Only Touchdown in Last Quarter-Fumbles Plentiful.

SARNIA, Nov 13.—Before a large crowd and playing on a field four inches deep in snow, Sarnia Collegiate smashed their way to a 7 to 2 win over Galt Ciphers this afternoon. Raynor's punting was superb, but lacked the support the Sarnia halves were accorded. Hanna's fumbles were responsible for Sarnia not running up an impressive lead.

ible for Sarnia not running up an impressive lead.

First quarter. Galt kicked off, Hanna returning to centre field. The star on the snow-covered field. Several scoring chances were lost on off-sides, the locals keeping the play around centre field on penalties and fumbles. Bentley was penalized for high tack-ling. Sarnia bucked for yards several times through the Galt line, Gabler, Newton and Simpson doing the greater part. Neither back division were sure with their hands. Sarnia recovered an on-side kick on the Galt ten-yard line. Fumbles held them to no gain on two downs, Hanna booting on-side kick to the deadline on the first down. Sarnia 1, Galt 0.

The Sultan of Swat packs a punch in other activities. I have in mind Ruth's recent skirmish with "His Honor Judge Landis, doing the pitching. Technically "Babe" lost the decision to the judge. However, he scored a moral victory for a Annual principle, that is sure to work to the advantage of the ball player.

At the close of the world series Judge Landis, doing the hurling for the magnates, served the following assortment of mixed English for the "Babe's" consideration. Both teams that contest in the world series are required to C. disband immediately after its close, and the members thereof are forbidden to participate as individuals or as a team in exhibition

ARGOS SMOTHER Rugby Results

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Pete Herman, New Orleans, former world's bantam-weight boxing champion, received the judge's decision over Roy Moore of St. Paul, in a fifteen-round bout here last night. It was Herman's first appearance in the ring since he lost his title to Johnny Buff last September.

Herman held a safe lead in every round but the eighth, in which Moore had a shade, and the ninth, which was even. The former champion's in-fighting was effective, with Moore taking severe punishment from fast right and left hand body blows.

If you were a great ball player like Babe Ruth, possessing unusual ability as a batsman, that rule wouldn't make much of a hit with you. In the above clause you have the reason for the recent difference of opinion between Judge Landis on the side of the magnates and "Babe" Ruth for the ball player.

Offered $40,000.

Ruth received about $3,200 for his losing share of the world series. If the Yankees had failed to win the Yankees had failed to win the American League pennant, Ruth would have received $40,000 for playing 25 exhibition games at the close of the American League season. There was nothing of the gamble about the proposition, the money was to be placed to Ruth's credit in a bank before the start of the tour.

When the Yankees won the right to the trip, but he seriously objected to the rule which the judge was compelled to enforce.

Ruth called off his exhibition tour after playing only four of the scheduled games. At first it might appear that Babe was "kayoed" by the judge. As a matter of fact Ruth accomplished the very thing he set out to do. He secured world-wide publicity of a manifestly unfair rule. I am positive Judge Landis entertains that opinion. It is almost certain that the rule will be changed. However, it would probably have continued to exist had not easie the league.

Origin of Rule.

The rule was inspired in 1910 because of the sorry showing made by changing had the Lady Beck changed. The team will compete for the changionship and the Lady Beck.

origin of Rule.

Origin of Rule.

The rule was inspired in 1910 bestart of the tour.

When the Yankees won the right to play in the series, the offer still held good as far as the promoters were concerned, but the rules of baseball said nothing doing.

Babe Ruth is unquestionably the biggest man in baseball, from the playing standpoint. He resented the manifestly unfair rule. Anyone with a bit of common sense would have taken the same attitude, with a $37,000 loss staring him in the face. He decoded to test the clause forbidding a world series player to barnstorm.

Yanks Offer Bonus.

The New York club realizing Ruth's enormous value to the club and the American League, offered him a bonus of $25,000, I understand, to cancel the offer, Ruth had no grievance against Judge Landis for his refusal to sanction
