In his nome town, Cosnocton, Onto, Green is known as a capable worker who has kept out of print because of his quiet and retiring nature.

Always active in union affairs, Green has been secretary of the United Mine Workers since 1912 and since 1913 he has been a secretary of the American Federation of Labor.

In general he supported Gompers, but he opposed him in discussions on the government ownership of railways question in the Montreal convention of 1920. Green favored government

Dear Aunt Jane:

A handkerchief in time - that seems to be the obvious way of starting this letter.

For it's true that a handkerchief in time serves many a last minute purpose as a Christmas gift. I was among a number of wary shoppers who had an early choice from the handkerchief counter this morning. A green silk sport handkerchief with a vivid Roman stripe. A delicate thing of blue lace and georgette. A white crepe de chine with a
