Premier Laurier Proposes Cash Bonus With Mortage on

Decision to Organize a National Museum at Federal Capital.

From Our Own Correspondent.
Ottawa, May 21.—The cabinet was in session all morning today. The political question under consideration was the nature of the aid which the government should give to the Grand Trunk Pacific and Canadian Northern. Previous to the meeting the Prime Minisvious to the meeting the Prime Minister had a conference with his Ontario and Quebec followers. There is great divergency of opinion among Liberals respecting the assistance which should

The above is a sketch of a designation become time ago showing the part of the some time ago showing the part of the company to erect an appearance of the James Bay flats, as it might be laid out—and this sketch was submitted to the C. P. R. management, in order to give them an idea of the locality in which it was proposed to erect the new hotel. It conveys a very good impression of the grandeur of the scene which will be presented when the structure in contemplation shall have been erected.

There are, however, some changes in the present scheme, as the above sketch as the picture and a college situated in the Douglas gardens. It also shows the botel site continued up to Humboldt street; whereas under the present proposition only about half the frontage on the embankment is to be appropriated. But the general appearance of that as ection of the city, when the proposed improvements shall have been made, is excellently depicted.
