So far as Ontario is concerned election day passed off with few disturbances. There was some trouble in Kitchener owing to the celebration of the Laurier party of their victory in the riding, threatening to rush the Union Committee rooms, and another case of disturbance is reported from Nipissing, where two Unionist scrutineers were badly beaten by a French-Canadian mob. The Union government will have a good working majority. The West went largely for the Government while Quebec and Prince Edward Island went almost solid for Laurier. In Ontario only 11 Laurierites were returned to 71 Unionists. With the exception of the two French-

Canadian ministers. Hon. T. E. Blondin and Hon. A. Seigney, both of whom ran in two constituencies and were defeated, all the ministers were returned. In King's, Nova Scotia, Sir Robert Borden had a majority of more than 1000.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier was defeated in Ottawa by A. E. Frapp, who had more than 500 majority. In Quebec east, however, Sir Wilfrid rolled up a majority of 6000.

When the soldiers' vote is counted the government's majority will be increased about 10, it is claimed. Three seats in Alberta are still in doubt.

J. E. Armstrong, M. P. for East Lambton

EAST LAMBTON

Mr. Jos. E. Armstrong Elected by a Large Majority.

The contest in East Lambton resulted in the re-election of Mr. Armstrong by a big majority over Mr. McDougall. The figures for the several polling sub-divisions that are to hand are incomplete, consequently we reserve the details until after the official count on Wednesday next.

Mr. McDougall has submitted the following figures, which he claims are correct.

OBITUARY

The death of the late Mrs. Richard Morris took place at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. E. Kearney, 12th line, Brooke, in her 80th year. On October 30th she broke her right leg, caused by a fall on the woodshed floor. The bone knit and it was hoped she would soon be well again, but the shock was too much for her poor weak heart. Care and attention could not save her, and on Wednesday, Nov. 28th, she left us for the better land. Deceased maiden name was Catharine Wiley. At the age of sixteen she married Richard Morris, a blacksmith, who predeceased her 23 years ago. Together they passed through many joys, trials and hardships, incident to a pioneer life. There were ten children born to them and five survive. Mrs. Morris was remarkably active, kindly natured and of a bright disposition, and had many firm friends. She was a woman of saintly memory, never turned anyone away hungry from her door and was always ready to lend a helping hand to those in trouble. Her old home and neighbors were very dear to her, so in accordance with her last wishes, she was taken there on Friday, all her family being present, also a nephew, Mr. James Wiley, of Detroit, and Mr. Underwood, of Sarnia. The funeral was held on Saturday to the Watford cemetery. She was a life-long Methodist and the Rev. Triffin preached a very impressive sermon. She had also chosen her pallbearers and many gathered to pay a last tribute to one they loved most dearly. Mrs. Morris had nine grandchildren and three great grandchildren.
