NOTHING TO EQUAL BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Mrs. Alfred Naud, Natagan River, Que., writes: "I do not think there is any other medicine to equal Baby's Own Tablets for little ones. I have used them for my baby and have used nothing else." What Mrs. Naud says thousands of other mothers say. They have found by trial that the Tablets always do just what is claimed for them. The Tablets are a mild but thorough lavative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and thus banish indigestion, constipation, colic, colds, etc. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Watford Young Man Given Handshake by Prince

The London Free Press of Friday last has the following:—
Among those who had the honor of a handshake with the Prince of Wales, there is none prouder than the youngest member of the guard of honor, Robert W. Tiffin, son of Rev. A. C. Tiffin, of Watford, 16 years of age, was the guard's youngest, but that fact did not secure him the royal handshake.
The Prince passed young Tiffin on his inspection and merely noticed in passing that he wore the general service medal ribbon. He passed, but glanced back and saw a blue ribbon on his right breast, the place designed for civilian decorations by army regulations. The Prince then turned and asked "What ribbon is that?" Tiffin replied proudly: "The Humane Society's life saving medal ribbon." "Have you it with you?" asked H. R. H., and Tiffin pulled his bronze medal out and showed it to the future king. The Prince then smiled and gave Tiffin a hearty handshake.
Pte. Tiffin declared last night that the Prince was "a good sport" and that he talked just like any other Canadian.

Harry Harvey, treasurer of Moss twp., who lives on the Longwoods road, was held up by two men who drove up to his store in an automobile and spent about half an hour in the store eating lunch. Several people of the neighborhood were in the store at the time talking over election matters. These took their departure one by one, and when the last of them had gone, one of the two strangers suddenly closed the front door of the store while the other covered the proprietor with a revolver and demanded his money. Although the revolver was placed within two inches of his nose, Mr. Harvey was not to be cowed but grappled with the man and was getting rather the best of him when the man at the door, with revolver in hand, started over to assist his companion. Being unarmed, Mr. Harvey thought it the better part of valor to retreat and ran to the back door and called for help. Left to themselves the hold-up endeavorers to open and rob the till, but hearing foot-steps approaching they fled before they could accomplish their object, and jumping into their car drove hastily away.

Hick-Clark

An event of more than ordinary interest transpired in our midst on Wednesday, Oct. 29, when Miss Sadie M. Clark became the bride of Mr. Charles Frank Hick, of Brooke township. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's mother, St. Clair street, by Rev. A. C. Tiffin, pastor of the Methodist church, of which the bride was an honored member. The bride was given away by her brother, while the wedding march was played by Mrs. Stewart. They were unattended, and only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. The gifts were choice and suggestive of the high esteem in which the bride is held by a large circle of friends. The wedding dinner was ample and thoroughly enjoyed by the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Hick left on the afternoon train for Toronto, on their return they settle down to the realities of wedded life on the groom's farm on the 10th line of Brooke. Their many friends join in congratulating them and wish for happiness and prosperity.

IN MEMORIAM

FULCHER—In loving memory of my dear husband, Bert E. Fulcher, who died one year ago the 1st of November.
A year has gone, but none can tell
The loss of one we loved so well;
The trial is hard, we'll not complain,
But trust in heaven to meet again;
Not now, but in the coming years;
It may be in the better land
We'll read the meaning of our tears,
And then up there we'll understand.
—Wife, Baby Beulah and other relatives.
