The Woodstock Times of the 18th inst, gives an account of the deserti n of four soldiers of the 69th Regt. whose route to the lines was guided by some scoundrel of the name of Roach. The unusual appearance of such gentry at the doors of a Jacksontown farmer naturally created suspicion; and with a laudable zeal, Messrs Buxton and Briggs made a requisition on their neighbours, raised " a posse armed and unarmed," pursued the fugitives, captured them, and lodged them safely in careful keeping. Such instances of devoted obedience to the laws of the land, and of firm adherence to British con nection, as these worthy farmers have shewn, should be blazoned in characters of adamant before the eyes of those who absurdly t.lk of bartering away the country west of the river St. John, to re- ladin Med, Rive and Superfice Fourpublican rule.
