In selecting a building site, choose the best spot on your best road, not too much isolated from neighbors: if possible, facing the south on a rise of ground, say about 10 yards from the road, to allow for a nice lawn in front. This latter will add 10 per cent. to the value of the homestead, and besides, appearances add more to our comfort than we often give them credit for. As an instance, why does Farmer Thrifty whistle a tune as he drives his team up the neat, shady lane, past the well-kept garden and yards, to the barn, after a hard day's work, while his neighbor, Peter Tumble-
