

- pedition to Acadia, 28, 31, 37, 42; left in command at Port Royal, 43-6; with Champlain in the St Lawrence, 61, 63, 65, 68, 87.
- Port Mouton, De Monts' expedition at, 29-31.
- Port Royal, the French colony at, 34, 40-6, 47; Order of Good Cheer founded, 52-4; colony abandoned, but re-established, 56-8; captured by the British, 76.
- Poutrincourt, Seigneur de, with De Monts in Acadia, 28-9, 31, 41-2; his colonizing expedition to Port Royal, 46-56, 58.
- Prevert, a mariner of St Malo, 20, 34.
- Quebec, 59-60, 62, 81; Champlain reaches, 64, 66-7; hard times in, 67-8, 83, 87; two bright spots, 80-1; captured by the Kirkes, 124-6; restored to France, 127.
- Raleigh, Sir Walter, his colony in America, 14, 16.
- Ralleau, with Champlain in Acadia, 30, 46.
- Récollets, the, in New France, 80, 119.
- Richelieu, Cardinal, his energetic colonial policy, 120-3, 129, 133; succumbs to European interests, 124, 127-8 n.
- Sagard, Gabriel, a Récollet missionary, 77.
- St Croix, the French colony at, 34-5, 37.
- St Germain-en-Laye, treaty of, 127.
- St Lawrence, the, 22, 61-2; Champlain's explorations of, 21, 84.
- Soissons, Comte de, and Champlain, 73.
- Spain, her early conquests in America, 8, 12-13.
- Sully, Duc de, opposes French colonization, 17, 25, 61, 121.
- Suza, treaty of, 126.
- Tessouât, an Algonquin chief, 102.
- Thirty Years' War, its effect on New France, 128 and note.
- Three Rivers, erection of fort at, 134.
- Ventadour, Duc de, viceroy of New France, 116, 117.
- Vignau, Nicolas, 97; deceives Champlain with a story of the North Sea, 98-101; his punishment, 103-4.
- Wars of the League, the, 6-8.