

missionaries should be remembered in the prayers of Christian people.

At the last meeting of the Wesleyan Missionary Committee, it was unanimously resolved to ask the Conference to appoint the Rev. W. Morley Punshon, LL.D., the successor of the late Rev. L. H. Wiseman, D.D., Missionary Secretary.

The following is deserving of special attention by Christians in Canada: All the leading Christian Churches feel the need of providing a fund for worn-out ministers. We see it stated that a fund of $500,000 has been raised by the Congregationalists of England for retired pastors. We have been labouring, says the Richmond Christian Advocate, to raise $200,000 for the benefit of our broken-down preachers, and the widows and orphans of deceased preachers. When shall we have the pleasure of saying that the M. E. Church, South, in the Virginia Conference, has raised $200,000 for retired pastors?

The Right Method of Giving.—Rev. Andrew Fuller went to his native town to collect for missions. One of his acquaintances said, "Well, Andrew, I'll give you £5, seeing it is you." "No," said Mr. Fuller, "I can take nothing for this cause, seeing it's me," and handed the money back. The man felt reprov'd, but in a moment he said, "Andrew, you are right; here is £10, seeing it is for the Lord Jesus Christ."

REVIVALS AND THE HIGHER LIFE.

The venerable Wesley is known to have said that Methodists were raised up by God to "spread Scriptural holiness through these lands." It is no libel upon others to say, that for many years "the people called Methodists" were peculiar in this respect, that they made the most strenuous efforts to build up the churches in holiness.

But what do we now behold? Mr. Varley has for several months been labouring both in Canada and the United States, and the success of his labours has been marvellous. Rev. Messrs. Inskip and Macdonald visited two of our Canadian cities, and those who heard them say that they never heard the doctrine of holiness so clearly presented before. These honoured brethren have long laboured in connection with the national camp meeting
