ROSSLAND.

Rev. G. H. Morden, Pastor.

There are a few items from Rossland that are worth noting this month. During the past six weeks extensive improvements have been made to the interior of the church. In addition to what has already been done, the Ladies' Aid have let the contract for seating the entire auditorium with pews, and these are now being manufactured and installed by local men. As soon as spring comes it is the intention to make much needed improvement to the exterior of the building. These alterations when finally completed will cost about sixteen hundred dollars.

In order to secure subscriptions for the payment of this sum, we held reopening services on Sunday, January 14th. The Trustee Board invited Rev. P. A. Cool, D.D., of First Methodist Church, Spokane, to preach for us upon that occasion, and the appeal was made to our people to pledge the sum of $1,450, the amount needed over and above funds already in hand. They rallied grandly to the occasion and pledged a total of $1,536 at the two services. We are (and we think pardonably so) proud of that record for a circuit only four years old. The services of Dr. Cool were invaluable to the success of the effort. His sermons were very powerful and intensely spiritual presentations of the Gospel. They reached the hearts of the people so that they responded readily and freely to his appeals for subscriptions. The methods adopted to create enthusiasm declare the Doctor to be an adept in financial matters.

On Sunday, January 21st, we had Bro. Crosby with us for Missionary Anniversary services. The congregations were large and the people were delighted with the able addresses to which they listened. An interest and enthusiasm was created in missionary matters that will result, we are confident, in a gratifying advance in missionary income from this circuit.

LILLOOET.

Rev. J. E. Gardner, pastor.

The pastor was taken ill with heart failure last November and has since then been unable to attend to the work, being at present confined to bed.

The doctor has ordered him to give up preaching and take a complete rest.

The public school teacher, Mr. Brandon, and Mrs. Gardner, have kept the Sunday school running and also held an occasional song service.

Last fall a very nice organ was procured for the church. The people responded liberally and it was paid for before it got here.

The parsonage debt has also been undertaken. Ninety dollars have already been collected, and we have subscriptions covering most of the rest. We are expecting to clear it all off by Conference.

We hope to report $180 to the T. C. T. F. Word has just been received that a supply has been secured for the rest of this conference year.
