And Black wins.

NOTES.

- (a) White seems to have nothing better than these exchanges, which, however, leave Black with the superior position.
- (b) These moves of the Rook were made with the object of "passing" Black's Q B P.
- (c) An excellent conception.
- (d) This is also very well played and throws Black on the defensive for some time.
- (e) His best reply, and one we believe which leaves White without any hope of saving the game.
- (f) If

42. R to Q Q to Q 6
