

THE MANITOBA MINSTRELS;
OR, LEARNING TO PLAY THE STOLEN MUSIC.

The personal appearance of none of our popular writers is less familiar to the public than that of Mr. Clemens's (Mark Twain), unless it be that of Mr. Henry James, Jr. Of both these gentlemen Mr. Cole is engraving portraits in wood for The Century, and Mr. Howells has prepared the sketches which are to accompany them. Mr. Clemens's, which is spoken highly of both as a work of art and a faithful representation, will form the frontispiece of the September number. Mr. James's will follow soon, together with a piece of literary work by the writer, which, it is said, will be of greater popular interest even than "Daisy Miller."

A national sentiment—"Here's luck."

Motto for a counterfeiter—"I have set my life upon a cast and I will stand the hazard of the die."

Fashionable Intelligence—It is said that the Princess of Wales has sat upon Lady Harberton's divided skirt.
