CITY AND ELSEWHERE.

JUST OUR LUCK.

If money grew on all the trees,
 In winter and in '99
 There'd come a blizzard of a breeze
 And blew it all away!

It is now as good as settled that there will be a session of the Federal Parliament before a dissolution.

ANNOUNCEMENT is made of the appointment of Mr. Kenneth Campbell as police magistrate for Brandon.

The Young Conservatives held a convention at Toronto on the 17th inst. Mr. R. J. Bird will represent the Winnipeg Young Conservatives.

The best paving for our streets has at last been adopted. It has been illustrated that ice and snow makes the most solid and smooth—during winter.

A contemporary lays down a number of rules of action in case of one's clothing taking fire. One of them is to "keep as cool as possible."

The many friends of Mr. John Barry, will regret to hear that he is at present very ill, and that there are but slight hopes of his recovery from an attack of congestion of the lungs.

That original individual, the "cold enough for you" man finally got his opportunity to display himself, for since Christmas he and Mercury seem to have been celebrating.

We would again remind our friends of the necessity of attaching the names to all communications sent to this office. The names will not be published when we are requested not to do so, but are required as an evidence of good faith.

FATHERS, if you do not wish your sons to smoke, chew and drink, set them the example by eschewing all these in your life and habits. Precept is good, very necessary and salutary, but one living example is worth a hundred precepts.

St. Patrick's society held a meeting Wednesday night and made arrangements to fittingly celebrate the anniversary of St. Patrick. After some routine business, the meeting adjourned until the 30th January.

"CATCH-EM-ALIVE'S" lecture on "The Reformation" (of himself), proved a success while the shirkers lasted. Those who met after could easily realize that sporadic religious feelings are not all that they represent on paper.

St. Mary's academy opened with a full attendance of scholars. During vacation, the academy was thoroughly overhauled, which owing to its brightness in no small degree tended to gladden the young hearts to renewed energy to pursue their way to the bright future before them, if they are fortunate enough to follow the advice and training of the good Sisters.

Old friends of Mr. J. D. McDonald, of St. James C. P. R. Station, who met him Friday night last, were for a long time in suspense to know why "Mac's" countenance were so bright and cheery. A hasty caucus was summoned to solve the problem. Report—a bouncing boy on New Year's eve. He was let off easy, only tea & coffee.

Chief of Police McRae's idea of having police alarm boxes stationed throughout the city is a very good one. During these very cold nights many a poor way-laid unfortunate would be saved the amputation of some of his limbs, and these in quest of a guardian of the peace would have but little delay in giving an alarm—just as in the case of fire.

The question of a successor to Mr. J. K. Suchan, as manager and secretary-treasurer of the Exhibition association was settled Thursday afternoon when Mr. Fred W. Henbach was appointed to the position. The salary has been increased to $1,500 per annum. Mr. Henbach will no doubt prove a trustworthy and competent officer.

The Society of Saint Vincent de Paul spread throughout a large part of the world, distributed to the poor in 1893 the sum of $2,246,692. Besides doing out this sum, its members visited the sick, procured situations for the unemployed, instructed the ignorant, counselled the doubtful, and practiced other works of mercy that cannot be set down in figures but that are known to the Recording Angel and will one day be made manifest.

Miss Lizzie O'Connell, sister of Mr. Chris O'Connell, of the Teemseh house, left on Saturday to visit friends in Barrie, Ont.

Mr. T. J. WALSH, of the engineering department of the C. P. R. left on Saturday for Fort William. He will be absent about a month.

SUBSCRIBERS changing their residence should be prompt in notifying us. In reporting changes of residence always give the old as well as the new address.

Mr. ED. BARRY, brother of W. H. Barry, of the Royal Oak Hotel, met with a slight accident on Monday by a kick from a horse. Mr. Barry will be confined to his room for a few days, the injuries not being of a serious nature.

A SUBSCRIBER at Balduf, Man., reviewing his subscription says: "I am the only Catholic in this village, and cannot get along without the Review." Thank you, circulate the Review and ere long you will increase the fold. The Review is without doubt a great factor.

Mr. A. W. BLOUIN, of Montreal, Inspector of the Banque d'Hochelaga, has taken charge of the branch office in this city during the absence of Manager Boire, who has gone east. Mr. Blouin will be a guest at the Leland during his stay in the city.

Two Rev. Sisters are expected to arrive from Montreal shortly to replace the vacancies caused by death recently at St. Mary's academy; one will be in charge of the classes and one in that of music.

From out the brightly love of Heaven,
 Blessing thee ever day by day,
 Another dawning year is given,
 To scatter flowers across thy way;
 Oh, may each New Year bring thee store
 Of countless blossoms evermore!

Mr. J. McIlroy's little daughter, who has been so ill for the past couple of weeks, is now reported convalescent. The little girl had a most trying time, but owing to the careful attention on given she will be around again soon.

Among the many pictures to be given in the presbytery of St. Mary's church, is a life size crayon of Rev. Father Soulier, Superior General of the Oblate Order. The features are brought out very truthfully, and is the work of Rev. Brother John, O. M. I. who is in charge of St. Mary's school for boys.

At an informal meeting of the St. Vincent de Paul society steps were taken to arrange for the annual entertainment to be held on March 18th. There are many demands on this society during the winter months, and a friend in need will be a friend indeed. Be sure you attend.

In our account last week of the New Years' greeting at St. Boniface Orphanage, the names of Messrs. T. John, P. Martin and J. J. Tomlinson were omitted. Since the inception of this pleasant reminder to the little ones, the above named gentlemen have been amongst the most earnest workers on the committee.

MAX O'REIL in a lecture at Toronto on "Her Royal Highness Woman," paid a high compliment to Canadian women, averring that they combine the beautiful complexion of England with the intelligence of Americans. He evidently took his cue from the living illustrations to be seen in Winnipeg every day.

It costs less to educate children than it does to pay the expenses of our jails. Education and enlightenment are the enemies of crime. If the defaulting treasurer of Sifton Municipality, instead of voting, while in the legislature, against Catholics being granted their legal rights, had been "conscious" by education, of his wrong doing, there would be no necessity of having "crime" staring him in the face.

Mr. THOS. GILROY was sworn in as mayor of Winnipeg on the strength of a recount. Mr. McKenna's friends have now entered a protest against Mr. Gilroy holding the coveted position. When will the time come that the ballot can be made all that is claimed for it? We have had two such contests in Winnipeg. In the former one the favorite candidate manfully and immediately appealed to the electorate and the mayor who occupied the chair was placed there by the voice of the people, not by a technicality. If Mr. Gilroy is sure that he is the choice of the people, why not throw down the gauntlet to his opponent, and prove the correctness of his opinions.

Mr. E. R. DOWDALL, for the past six years in the establishment of Mr. E. F. Hutchings, left on Saturday morning to visit friends in Perth, Ont. Mr. Dowdall will be absent about two months. The employees of the establishment availed themselves of the opportunity, previous to his departure, to present him with a handsome gold ring suitably engraved, the donors reminding him of the solemnity of accepting a ring—that he was not to break his promise to be faithful and return to them again. Unlike many others, Mr. Dowdall will return unharmed—for life—and says he will be ready, as in the past, to receive proposals—to ship the finest goods in his line, for the finest establishment in Manitoba. Fine fellow, this Ed. is.

There is a party going the rounds of the city soliciting aid and assistance from printing establishments. He is clothed with self-not-up petition "suggested by a prominent clergyman." This man has been time and again given succor from his one-time fellow-workers, but his scheme has been tried once too often, for when work was offered "he had always some business to attend to" before starting, and that business generally lasted two or three days—just long enough for the job to run out. Now he has, to our knowledge been going to Protestant clergymen and relating his grievances against Catholics not helping him; then going to Catholic priests with his old story. He is no earthly good, and an undeserving individual who is taking from deserving, hardworking men of families what justly belongs to them, but are too honorable, while possible, to seek charity. Invite SUNDAY next is School Sunday at St. Mary's church. There will be collections in aid of the Catholic setools at all the masses, and at vespers.

MISS JOSEPHINE RUSSELL, accompanied by her niece, Miss Kathleen Murphy, daughter of Mr. Richard Murphy, left on a two months' visit to relatives in Binghampton, New York.

APLEASANT social and musical evening was spent at the residence of Miss Annie Kennedy, Hargrave street, on Monday evening, the occasion being the reunion of friends prior to the departure of a young lady who has endeared herself to many during her residence in Winnipeg.

MISS MAGGIE McDONALD, of Paris, Ont., who has been on an extended visit among friends in Winnipeg, left for her old home to-day. Miss McDonald during her stay in the city surrounded herself with many friends a number of whom were as the station to wish her bon voyage.

THE Ladies Aid society who meet every Tuesday afternoon have disposed of many articles of apparel and otherwise to deserving poor during the winter. The ladies meet at St. Mary's presbytery and make and repair all donations given to them. It is a good way to fill in spare moments to all who can, and the ladies gladly extend a welcome to lend a hand.

CAPTAIN P. D. O'NEILL, who for some years has been Inspector of United States Customs at Winnipeg, is now in charge of the Rainy Lake and River district, with headquarters either at Rainy Lake City, or Couchiching, the new town that has sprung up on the Minnesota side of Alberton Falls, opposite Fort Francis. On Thursday evening last the citizens of Graceville gave him a fine banquet as a testimony of their esteem and as a fitting "sendoff" before leaving for his new field of labors.

At the annual meeting for the election of officers of Branch 52, C. M. B. A. the following gentlemen were elected for the ensuing year: Spiritual Advisor, Very Rev. Father Langevin, D. P. O. M. I.; Chancellor, L. O. Genest, President, E. Cass; 1st Vice-President, G. Germain; 2nd Vice-President, R. Driscoll, Rec. Secretary, H. A. Russell, Assistant Rec. Secretary, J. J.
