

Ray Connell

(604) 684-1181

Established more than 30 years ago, Ray Connell represents a local, national and multi-national clientele of individuals, entrepreneurs, firms, corporations and various levels of government. We have gained extensive experience in international trade as, over the years, lawyers in our Pacific Rim Group have lived and worked in Japan gaining knowledge, experience and wide associations. Their strength and proficiency in Japanese language, business practices and customs are called on by North American clients with interests in the Pacific Rim, and by Japanese clients with interests in North America and elsewhere.

Russell & DuMoulin

(604) 688-3411

Russell & DuMoulin has a tradition of providing legal services dating back to 1889. As the firm's clients have grown, developed and diversified we have adapted to meet their local, national and international needs. In its centennial year Russell & DuMoulin merged with the Vancouver law firm of Lyall McKercher Hanna, and established an association with Philip K.H. Wong & Co., one of the leading Hong Kong law firms. As we enter our second century, Russell & DuMoulin will continue to be actively responsive to the developing needs of our clients.
