

5. The competent institution of the other Party will subsequently determine the claimant's eligibility and, through its liaison agency, notify the liaison agency of the first Party of the benefits, if any, granted to the claimant.
6. The liaison agencies of the Parties will, by common agreement, prescribe the forms on which a claim described in paragraph 1 may be submitted. The liaison agency of a Party may refuse to accept a claim for a benefit under the legislation of the other Party if that claim is not submitted on the prescribed form.

Article 5

Medical Examinations

1. The liaison agency of a Party will, to the extent permitted by the legislation which it administers, provide, upon request, to the liaison agency of the other Party such medical information and documentation as are available concerning the disability of a claimant or beneficiary.
2. If the competent institution of a Party requires that a claimant or a beneficiary who resides in the territory of the other Party undergo a medical examination, the liaison agency of the latter Party, at the request of the liaison agency of the first Party, will make arrangements for carrying out this examination according to the rules applied by the liaison agency making the said arrangements and at the expense of the agency which requests the medical examination.
3. On receipt of a detailed statement of the costs incurred, the liaison agency of the first Party will, without delay, reimburse the liaison agency of the other Party for the amounts due as a result of applying the provisions of paragraph 2.
