

Development is evident in our bilateral, regional and

	EXPECTED OUTCOME	NOTES
1 n	- progress on the AAP commitments in the areas of peace and security, governance, economic growth, debt relief, education and digital opportunities, health and HIV/AIDS, agriculture and water. Progress is to be reviewed in an implementation report by 2005. - more sustained progress and improved bilateral ties once "enhanced partners" are identified as a result of the NEPAD African peer review (a commitment in the G8 AAP). - effective channelling of scarce donor resources, including: coherent multinational standby brigade capabilities, regional peace training centres, a continental early warning network and institutional capacities to undertake conflict prevention.
	- improved definition, recognition and acceptance nationally of CSR standards (federal framework) and improved international consensus on CSR (OECD Guidelines). - improved engagement of developing countries in the development and implementation of CSR standards.
	- improved air quality in Southern Ontario and Quebec. - improved cooperation and framework for predicting the potential for transboundary environmental impacts. - safe and sustainable extraction of oil and gas reserves straddling Canadian and French areas of jurisdiction near St. Pierre and Miquelon as a result of the Agreement. - protection of Canadian aquatic species.	