

The benefits that will flow from such a joint meeting were very apparent in 1942 when, at a Parliamentary Conference at which I had the honour to preside, members of the Congress of the United States met in Conference for the first time with Canadian and Commonwealth Members of Parliament.

S/C