The nine subsidies first mentioned to be granted to the Companies hereinbefore named respectively ; and the two subsidies last mentioned to be granted to such Companies as shall be approved by the Governor in Council as having established to his satisfaction their ability to complete the said Railways, respectively, and all the eleven lines above mentioned shall be constructed within a reasonable time, not to exceed four years, to be fixed by Order in Council ; according to descriptions and specifications to be approved by the Governor in Council, on the Report of the Minister of Railways and Canals, and specified in an agreement to be made by each Company with the Government, and which the Government shall be empowered to make ; and all the said subsidies, respectively, to be payable out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of Canada by instalments, on the completion of each section of not less than ten miles of railway, proportionate to the value of the portion so completed in comparison with the whole work undertaken, to be established by the Report of the said Minister.

Sir Charles Tupper then introduced a Bill No. 137 for authorizing subsidies for the construction of the lines of Railway therein mentioned ; which was read the first time, and ordered for a second reading, on Monday, next.

Sir Charles Tupper moved, that the Bill No. 127 further to amend the Consolidated Railway Act, 1879, and to declare certain lines of Railway, to be works for the general advantage of Canada, be now read a third time.

Mr. Blake moved in amendment thereto, that the said Bill be re-committed to a Committee of the Whole, in order to amend the Clause transferring Provincial Railways to the Legislative Jurisdiction of the Parliament, by striking out the
