Tenth
February,
1933

Sir Arthur Currie, G.C.M.G., K.C.B.,
McGill University,
Sherbrooke Street, West,
Montreal, P.Q.

Dear Sir Arthur,

Subsequent to your call upon Mr. R.J. Magor on the 8th, I happened to meet him on two occasions when I pressed him to accept the Campaign Chairmanship of Federation.

Today I had Magor and Thornhill to lunch when Thornhill and I again put forward Federation's request, and I am pleased to say that Mr. Magor accepted.

I think that your call upon him had the most effect, and Magor asked me to tell you that he felt like the young girl who was being pursued by a heavy suitor and who decided that the only thing to do was to marry him in order to get rid of him.

It was most gratifying to see the splendid attendance at today's Directors' Meeting, and, if we can now get McCuaig to join up with us, I feel that everything in Federation will be running along comparatively smoothly for the time being at least.

Yours sincerely,

P.S. I notice that last year you were elected to the Board to serve until 1935. I take it that you would be agreeable to going off the Board to make room for Mr. W.F. Angus, who would be elected a Director at the Annual Meeting on the 20th.
