

COMMITTEES—continued.

quorum, 247; prayers, 248; order of daily business, 250 et seq.; presentation of petitions, 260-263; rules as to irregular petitions, 263-266; as to petitions for pecuniary aid, 266-268; for taxes or duties, 268-269; reflecting on house or members, 270; orders and addresses for papers, 273, et seq.; papers refused, 280 et seq.; printing service, 287-291; addresses originating in the house, 293; joint, 294-295; of congratulation or condolence, 296-297; on retirement of governor-general, 297-298; presentation, 300-301; messages from his Excellency, 301-302; messages to the Senate, by clerks, 397-398; conference, 399 et seq.; interchange of documents with other house, 394; relations with Senate as to money and tax bills, 407, 408, 500, 503, 514, 516; select bills rejected by Senate, 409-410; should not agree to "tacks" to bills of supply, 410-500; select standing committees, 414-426 et seq.; on private bills, 620; committee of the whole, 416, et seq.; on bills, 541 et seq.; can alone initiate money and tax bills, 500-503.

See clerk, parliament, speaker.

Confederation. See Parliamentary Institutions in Canada, VI.

Conferences; mode of regulating, 399 et seq.

Consent of the Crown. See Chapter XVII. on Supply, sec. 3.

Consequential amendments. See Chapter on Bills, XVIII., sec. 17.

Constitutional Act, 1791. See Parliamentary Institutions in Canada, IV.

Contempt of Court, members committed by courts of justice, 303.

Contingent accounts, committee of; appointed in the Senate, 160 et seq.; no longer appointed in the Commons, 183.

Contractors; disqualified from serving as members, 131 et seq.

Contents and non-contents. See Divisions.

Copyright bills; need not originate in committee of the whole, 521.

Corporations, private bills from; must be under common seal, 623.

Corpus Christi; houses adjourn over, 242.

Counsel; when in attendance on parliament, privileged, 196; members not to act as, before English private bill committees, 621; on behalf of persons, at the bar, 200; in divorce cases, 675-676.

Counting the House; no quorum, 247-248.

Christie, Robert; expelled from assembly of Lower Canada, 150-152.

Christie, Mr. Speaker; Senate adjourn, and name members to attend his funeral, 243; his opinions on points of order, 268 n., 389 n.

Crossing the house; deportment of members, 343.

Crown, the: represented by the governor-general, 49; demise of, 239; summons parliament, 220; causes of summons, declared, 226-231; prorogues, 221-236; dissolves, 220-240; duration of parliament, no longer dependent on, 220; message from, in case of arrest of members, 303; recommendation to votes of money, 463, 470, 493; consent to bills affecting prerogatives or property, 472; address for a grant of money, 504.

Customs bills; affect trade and originate in committee of the whole, 522-527; not always considered in committee of the whole in Canadian Commons, 496.