

Among the Emigrants from Ireland, there were 283 females, all from the Limerick Union. They received the usual landing money on arrival here, and with the exception of a few, who had friends in the United States, they were sent forward to Western Canada, in the neighborhood of Cobourg and Port Hope. The following is an extract from a letter from the Mayor of Port Hope, reporting the arrival and disposal of a party of these girls which were sent forward to him, at his request. "On the morning of the fifth instant I received from the agent at Montreal, a list of 54 young women, forwarded by him in compliance with your instructions, and upon enquiry I learn that they had all been landed at this place during the night. I caused the necessary arrangements to be made immediately for providing them with food and shelter, and during the course of the day managed to dispose of 34 of them, in good situations and at fair wages, since that time they have been gradually provided for in a satisfactory manner, with the exception of two, who are labouring under some slight indisposition, and are under medical treatment. I have to return you my thanks for your prompt compliance with my suggestions in sending us these young women, you have conferred a great benefit upon the people of this place, as well as upon the girls themselves; by the course adopted, the former have been released from an inconvenience of a serious and harassing description in the wants of servants, and the latter placed in a position which will give them all a fair state for a living in the new world. I think to-day if I had them, I could have placed twenty more in good situations in the county, as information of the arrival of this party spreads abroad.

"We receive constant applications from parties in want of servants, and who are not aware that they are all disposed of already. It would be advisable if you should have it in your power, to send us between this and the close of the navigation, fifty more, giving me a few days notice previous to their arrival here."

Since the receipt of this note, a further party has been forwarded to the care of His Worship, all of whom have been satisfactorily disposed of.

The Scotch and English Emigrants landed during this month are generally respectable farmers, and agricultural laborers, they have chiefly proceeded to Toronto and Hamilton; a large party of Scotch, by the "John McKenzie," from Greenock, proceeded to join friends at Pembroke, on the Ottawa River.

The Foreigners are mostly Germans, whose destination, with but few exceptions, was the Western States.

Employment continues as heretofore, abundant, and labourers and farm servants are daily enquired for, in almost every section of the Province.

No. 9.

From 30th September to 8th November.

The emigrants arrived during the month of October number 5,868 persons, being an increase upon the corresponding month in 1853 of 4,116 persons.

They generally landed in good health; the total mortality during the passage being but 65; 32 of which occurred on board two vessels, the "Larwig," from Gottenburg, and the "Oregon" from Liverpool. Both these vessels made long passages, the former 90 and the latter 62 days.

The emigrants have come out chiefly to join friends, a large portion of whom had been assisted by their relations in this country.

Among those from Ireland there were 327 female paupers from the Cork, Galway and Rathdrum Unions, and 7 orphans from the Foundling Hospital in Cork. The former received 20s. sterling each adult, and the latter 30s.
