

Independent Electors of the of Toronto.

relating to the approaching election for the representation taken place, it is desirable in the opinion of many of our address, briefly notice them.

Collection that in his address, under date of the 10th he was at that time the only candidate upon the Conservative the great Constitutional Principles upon which he promulgated a vast majority of the free and independent Electors municipal elections has fully established the truth of that only opponent Mr. Sherwood then had to announce to you for your suffrages. But it is much to be regretted, that, in Majesty's Solicitor General should have proclaimed that intimidation are paramount," for we feel no hesitation in being at variance with what we conceive to be the truth; and integrity and independence of the Electors of this City.

Mr. Isaac Buchanan Esq. has taken the field, and the address has attracted some attention from us, inasmuch as it contains assumptions of an extraordinary character, and which, so far as regards our calculations to convey the impression that, we are connected with a peculiar strain, he says "has been the curse of Upper Canada giving, or intend to give, an unbecoming opposition to a sentiment in common with a party whose political character is as described, or, that, we are giving or intend to give an unbecoming opposition to the Governor General, we distinctly and un-any degree of certainty, what Mr. Buchanan means by "the old Government Tory party"—and "the old party," but if to refer (as is generally supposed) to the native born in the country, in contradistinction to those who have more recently come from the British Isles, he has attributed to them more than they deserve without foundation. And besides, Mr. Buchanan's interpretation of the case is in direct opposition to the sentiments

Government (Tory party) and "the old party" means by