FIFTY HORSES SOLD

Big Day Considering Time of Year at the Repository.

It really looked as if something out of the ordinary was on to see the number of sales on November 19th at the Repository and the crowd of people inside. The Repository's sale this morning was the first of the season, and the horses were sold at a very high price. In the absence of Mr. C. A. Burns his able assistant, Mr. Isaac Watson, was in the box as auctioneer and sold nearly all that was offered. About 50 horses were offered and about 50 sold, all of outside of a number of city workers that were sold at nearly every sale. Jake of Fairfield, a registered Clydesdale stud colt (2) was sold to Belfry & Armstrong of Burgoyne, Ont. This is

Du Moulin Cheerful Drilling the Tigers For What's Coming

HAMILTON, Nov. 18.—Yesterday's practice was all that could be desired. The team look to be going pretty well and deserve great credit for the hard work of the last week. The tackling, which is their weak point, is improving daily, and Captain Isbister has decided that a great portion of the remaining practice will be devoted to perfecting it. The tackling bag will be used this afternoon and all next week. It was very pleasing to see the team in action yesterday. The big fellow will be on the line on the 28th. He is gaining confidence in his own ability every day, and will be ready for hard work next week. Marshall has all the qualifications of a great line plunger; in fact, he does not know his own strength, and with a little more confidence and vim he will be a very hard man to stop. McFarland shows great defence power, but lack of aggressiveness, which will come with experience. He has the makings of a valuable player. Isbister is the peer of all the players in the game. The other wings are going so well that there is no need of criticism. The half-backs are handling the ball well, but show a tendency to wander from the field instead of to the side. Kid Smith has shown great improvement. The other players are playing the same game that made them famous.

The team will be taken to Toronto tomorrow to witness the "Tasty-T.A.A.C." game. Hard practice will be resumed on Monday next, and continued until Thursday. It is absolutely necessary that we have a full line-up against the senior team in every practice next week. It seems an extraordinary thing that, with the Grey Cup within our grasp, we can't get four old or young players in the city to turn out and give a helping hand. Everybody will be welcome. Sep. DuMoulin.

Pickard will handle the whistle. Queen West is the holder of the cup at present, and will make a determined stand to hold it, and their team is going strong at the present time, while the all-Canadian bunch from the north-west are in it for the first year, and promise to make things interesting for the progress this fall season, securing the cup and Dovercourt Park the following week.

O.H.A. TROPHIES

Two More Cups Donated to Association by J. Ross Robertson.

The Ontario Hockey Association has at last a set of championship cups that are not only worthy of this greatest amateur sporting organization on earth, but will always be prized worth striving for. This week there arrived from the Elkington Company, London, England, two massive silver trophies, which will this morning be presented to the association by the donor, J. Ross Robertson. This makes three J. Ross Robertson cups now up for competition—the Senior Challenge Trophy, presented in 1888 and still the first and most artistic cup for annual competition in this country, and these two.

The larger one, for the intermediate championship, is a sterling silver cup, standing 22 1/2 inches above the polished bronze pedestal, and weighs 13 1/2 ounces. The smaller one, for the junior championship, is a sterling silver cup, standing 18 1/2 inches above the pedestal, and weighs 10 1/2 ounces.

For some years past the intermediate and junior teams had just cause for complaint at the trophies given them. Last year the O.H.A. decided that it was time to get new ones, and asked Mr. Robertson to choose two for them, while in London. He not only did as he was asked, but he also gave a gift from him, and President Louis Blake Duff accepted the trophies graciously.

While these two trophies are tangible evidence of the interest Mr. Robertson takes in the association itself, they stand as a monument of the time and energy he has devoted to it for the past years and more. It is to-day the pedestal of the association's organization in the sporting world in America, and it is so because of the zeal and untiring efforts of J. Ross Robertson during the lean and growing years stood at the head, guiding it from the shoals that have stranded many another body.

The cups are magnificent, but the association itself is the real hockey gift from Mr. Robertson's love for pure, manly sport.

U.C.C.'s Relay Race Bailey Takes the 80 At Life Saving Meet

The Harrison public baths building was packed to the doors last night when the Royal Life Saving Society Ontario branch, put on their second annual swimming gala.

Miss Beaton, the expert from Scotland, gave a very interesting exhibition of ornamental swimming, performing such feats as propelling, torpedo, mottled floating, logrolling and somersaults. Miss Benny of the Y.W.C. Guild, also gave an exhibition of fancy swimming. The Toronto Swimming Club showed how to rescue a drowning person and also how to revive him by the new Schafer method. The results of the races were as follows:

40 yards dash—Williamson, U.C.C. Time 1:13 seconds.

40 yards (back)—Wood, U.C.C. Time 2:30 seconds.

90 yards dash—Bailey, Toronto Swimming Club. Time 1:15 seconds.

Relay team race—U.C.C. 2, Toronto 1. Time 1:40 seconds.

A BROKEN-DOWN SYSTEM.

This is a condition (or disease) to which doctors give many names, but which few of them really understand. It is simply weakness—a breakdown, as it were, of the vital forces that sustain the system. No matter what may be its causes (for they are almost numberless), its symptoms are much the same: the more prominent being sleeplessness, sense of prostration or weariness, depression of spirits and want of energy for all the ordinary affairs of life. Now, what alone is absolutely essential in all such cases is increased vitality—a power to throw off these morbid feelings, and experience a new sense of vigor and energy.

"Salvador" BEER

There's a story behind "Salvador" beer—Canada's most famous brew—that carries us back to the year 1651

The Grand Duke Ferdinand, the Bavarian monarch of that period, established the now famous cloister brewery on the Nockberg Mountain, near Munich, and appointed Father Sale the chief brewmaster.

The product of the royal brewery was first known as "Father Sale's Beer," until the more convenient title of "Salvador" was adopted, about a century later.

For over 150 years "Salvador" was brewed under the patronage of the Bavarian royal family. In 1809, Franz X. Zacherl acquired control of the cloister brewery and purchased the secret formula of the royal brew.

From that day to this the formula and sole European rights have been the most jealously guarded inheritance of the famous brewer's family.

The rich, mellow flavor of "Salvador" is only attained by a special aging process, and if the output of the cloister brewery was great enough the people of Bavaria would drink no other beer.

Mr. Lothar Reinhardt completed his extensive studies of German brewing in this famous cloister brewery, where he secured the secret formula and process for brewing "Salvador." He has the sole right under the Canadian Government Copyright and Letters Patent to manufacture this famous brew.

Reinhardt's "Salvador" has become "The National Drink by a rigorous adherence to every detail of the original process devised by Father Sale in 1651.

Compared with all other brews, "Salvador" beer is worth a dollar a drop, yet it costs no more than just ordinary beer.

Every pint of "Salvador" is matured in wood for at least six months before bottling.

"Salvador" is not only a pure, sparkling and refreshing brew, it also possesses tonic qualities which make it the beer par excellence for family use.

Always order "Salvador" if you want the best beer brewed.
