LEAFS DIVIDED DOUBLE-DECKER

Kelly's Two Home Runs Put Crimp in Hubbell in the First Game.

By Ida L. Webster.

Saturday with a mob of nearly ten thousand watching them the Leafs could not do better than divide the double bill with the Hustlers. Knowing Arthur Irwin for the battler he is, the fans of this city could not wonder that his men went at it early, and remained at their posts late.

The first home runs of the season were made off Hubbell in the first game, and so far as our visiting friends are concerned let us hope that they will be the last. If anyone is going to have circuit smashes in this league, let it be the Leaflets.

This guy Kelly who banged the two "belt lines" for Rochester on Saturday, certainly does not care where he hits them nor how hard. His first wallop was in the left field bleachers, and his second one was in the right, so you see he plays no favorites. The former was staged in the second inning, while the latter was not pulled off until the fifth.

Herche relieved Hubbell in the seventh, but the damage was so far done that nothing short of an earthquake could have stopped the tide of the onrushing enemy.

There is not the slightest use telling you how all the runs happened in the first issue, because you have likely read it in the Sunday papers anyway, and if you have not the blow will not be softened any by harping about it. Enough to say the score was 7-4.

Gonzales was too lame to take his place at third in the second battle, so Herche was forced to switch from pitcher to third baseman. It is a good thing that the young man is able to double, else where would the pretty Leafs be? We have two or three ornaments squatting on the bench every day, but none of them appear to be able to do much, besides look like ball players.

By the time that the second contest was ready to be staged, the crowd had swollen a couple of thousand more, and with the filling of the stands, Hubbell's heart returned with such a bang that he decided that he would once more take his position in the front line trenches, and meet all comers. Fortunately for the standing of the Gibsonites his second attempt was luckier than his first.

Sandberg was the hero with the stick in this last deal, having two hits while Anderson, Herche, and McInnis were the jakes who were responsible for the errors for the Toronto crew. After one hour and 20 minutes the score stood 7 to 1 in our favor. Thank you.

Parkdale Lawn Bowling Club Season is Opened

The Parkdale Lawn Bowling Club opened the season on Saturday afternoon by a club tournament, President Wm. Inglis was the official host, and the tournament took the form of a contest for the Inglis and McCausland Cups—an annual event, but one which has heretofore been held at the close of the season. In all 32 rinks, 88 members, played, which was all the greens could accommodate, and a number of late entries had to watch from the sidelines. Ex-President W. M. McCausland presents a cup to the runners-up in this competition—Skip Raney just nosed out Skip Mann by one point.

The Inglis Cup—J. W. Ryder, R. E. McKendry, I. Anthony, Frank Raney skip.

The McCausland Cup—J. O'Meara, E. Purnell, J. O. McCarthy, Walter Mann skip.

After the game the members repaired to the basement of the Cowan Avenue Presbyterian Church, across the way, where they were received by Mrs. Inglis and a splendid supper served. Speeches, songs, music and stories followed, at the conclusion of which President Inglis presented each member of the winning rink with a very handsome leather bowling bag. The club presented Mrs. Inglis with a sheaf of American Beauty roses, and closed the most successful opening day in the history of the club. The club opens with 120 members, and looks forward to a very successful season.
