

Cool in the Midst of Danger.

Mrs. Babegood—I'm going shopping, Loisetle. Is anything needed for the nursery?

Loisetle—Oui, madame. Lettle Harold, vat you call—swallow hee's r-r-rattle zis morning. Eet vas ze sil-vaire one wis ze bells, madame. Posseebly you can it match.

Too Obliging.

Tramp—Excuse me, Captain, can you spare a poor chap a dime? I am just dying for a drink.

Pedestrian (severely)—I never drink, sir.

Tramp (stiffly)—Did I ask you to drink with me, sir? Give me the dime, and I'll drink alone.

PAIN IN THE BACK CURED.

Ship Harbour, N.S.,

May 9th, 1887.

A. J. WHITE & Co.

GENTS,—Last fall I had a severe attack of pains in the back and hips, and was in constant pain. After using the Syrup and ointment for two weeks I was able to move about as well as ever. I have not had another attack since. It is also the best medicine for the stomach I have ever taken, and the pills cannot be excelled.

Yours truly,

BENJAMIN KEATING.
