COUNTY CONSTABULARY ACT.

Amendments Which the Association Will Ask of the Government—Bill Ask for Uniforms. Detective Wason, who has just returned from the convention of County Constables in Lindsay, reports that a deputation from the meeting will shortly wait upon the government to urge some amendments to the County Constabulary Act. They want amendments made by a bill, consisting of the county judge, Crown Attorney and sheriff or warden, instead of by magistrates as at present. They will ask for amendments to the regulations regarding constables, and that constables in attendance at court be uniformed.

AT THE CIVIL ASSIZES.

Non-Violent Slender Case Dismissed—Who is Responsible for Spelling the Name?—Another Slender Suit.

The slender suit for $5000 brought by Calvin Lake of Stouffville against Thomas Williamson, private banker of the same place, was dismissed by Mr. Justice MacMahon at the Assize Court yesterday morning. The only witnesses heard were Charles and Henry Crawford, to whom the slender statement was alleged to have been made. The writ was issued in June, 1897, and under the cross-examination of Mr. T. Herbert Lennox these witnesses swore that the statement was confined to the month following.

To settle responsibility. One other case, Massey & Black v. Vanilline, took up the rest of the day, and will go on again this morning. George Harrison, a traveling salesman for Massey & Black, was staying at the Globe Hotel, York, in January, 1897, and was charged with having stolen a watch and a ring from the hotel proprietor. The plan was to claim $5000 damages from William H. Vanilline, the hotel proprietor. The defense claims that the show room in which the defendant occurred at the time of the theft, and was loaned to the agent for the purpose of showing the goods. The defense of the afternoon was occupied with an enquiry into the explosive matter in which the late Rev. William Henry Morden Carthew of the Old Hall, Bolton, Suffolk, England, left $10,000 in mortgages and annuities in 1870. All the property is bequeathed to the widow. The will of the late Rev. William Henry Morden Carthew has been left for probate. The estate is valued at $7500.

Charged With Theft of $100 Dress. Kate Gassette is a comely, well-dressed young woman, who, on the 2nd inst., was charged with the theft of a dress valued at $100, from a lady's room at the Hotel de Ville. Detective Davis was up in the cells at 10 o'clock.

Violence on the Roof. Michael Cosgrave, 3 Baldwin-street, was at work on the roof of Burns' shoe house, at 100 Queen-street, yesterday when he fell and sustained a compound fracture of the right leg. He was removed in an ambulance to St. Michael's Hospital.

STUDENTS FOUGHT POLICE.

A Riotous Display Which Arose From Snowballing.

Two Thousand Young Men From the Medical and Dental Colleges in Chicago have an Exhibition of Rowdiness and Several of Them Got Clubbed Pretty Badly.

Chicago, Feb. 8.—Two thousand students of the Medical College, the Chicago College of Dental Surgery and the Marquette School engaged in a desperate conflict yesterday afternoon at Harrison and Wood-streets with forty policemen. The battle raged with intermissions of peace from noon until 6 o'clock in the evening. The police were compelled to send in riot clubs, and in the early part of the scrimmage they were badly worsted. It was a free for all rough and tumble fight.

When the students were finally put to rout they retreated to the protection of the college buildings. From there they hurled down all kinds of missiles upon the police who were chasing them repeatedly, and in the early part of the scrimmage they were badly worsted. It was a free for all rough and tumble fight.
