LOOKING FOR MIKE MALONE

He and W. Roadhouse Wanted by Police for Saturday's Stabbing Affray.

GIRL SIMPSON WILL DIE FROM BURNS

John Milne Very Seriously Ill—Freight Cars Broken Into and Looted.

Hamilton, June 7.—The police have made no arrests yet in connection with the stabbing affray that took place at the Station Hotel Saturday morning, altho they profess to be anxious to capture Mike Malone and W. Roadhouse, a brother of the renowned Socialistic orator. Both men were severely cut. It is alleged that Malone fought with a pocket knife and Roadhouse with his fists. Roadhouse got three or four ugly jabs on his arm, and Malone's wrist was badly cut. The friends of Roadhouse claim that he fought only in self-defence, and that Malone got his gash in a struggle for the possession of the knife. Malone was arrested several months ago for threatening Frank Howe with a big knife.

Recovery Impossible.

Dr. Arnott, who is attending Wilhelmina Simpson, the three-year-old daughter of W. H. Simpson, 99 Grant-avenue, who was burned Friday afternoon, holds out very little hope of her recovery to-night. She is terribly burned from the waist up, and the doctor fears that her recovery is almost impossible.

Seriously Ill.

John Milne of the firm of Burrow, Stewart & Milne is very seriously ill, and his friends are much alarmed. He has not been well for some time, altho he was able to be around till Friday. Major J. J. Mason is also very low.

Freight Cars Looted.

Four freight cars in the G.T.R. yards at Stuart-street were broken into and looted. The railway people say they do not know what the loss will be until what is left is checked over, but a quantity of boots and shoes is missing. It was evident that the thieves were looking for some other kind of plunder.

Embarrassed Brides.

An embarrassing situation was created at a double wedding that took place here a few days ago by one of the officiating clergymen. It was arranged that the first knot was to be tied by Rev. Neil McPherson, pastor of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, and the second by Rev. Canon Wade, rector of the Church of the Ascension. The Anglican clergyman refused to take part in this order, as he claimed precedence over the Presbyterian divine, who willingly gave in, saying that he was not afraid of his dignity.

Happenings.

Martin Malone has begun a series of suits against firms who placed a bailiff in Edman Brown's house to collect bills from Miss Lottie Sheehan. The lawyer is also making an effort to have Sheriff Middleton displaced as assignee.

Charlie Sparham, a youngster from Barton Township, who confessed that he stole a purse containing $12, was sent to the Mimico Industrial School for three years Saturday by the magistrate.

PANIC AT S.S. PICNIC

in to Long Branch. John Stanners of 5 Lindsey-avenue, superintendent of the Sunday school, arranged with the G.T.R. to send out a special train, but it was 2.30 a.m. when two hundred exhausted excursionists reached Toronto.

Pastor is Thankful.

Chalmers Church congregation yesterday heard the first sermons from their new pastor, Rev. H. A. MacPherson, and were much pleased with his efforts. In the service the pastor expressed much thanksgiving at the wonderful escape of the children, and the members joined in with much earnestness.

There was a spirit of nervous excitement in the church, and many expressed their opinion that some action should be taken to recover damages from the Park Company. There will be a meeting of the Sunday school teachers this evening, when the matter will be discussed. Mr. Ross of Ross and Holmested, barristers, has been consulted, and will look after the interests of the church.

Approach is Repaired.

W. H. Orr, one of the officers of the Lorne Park Company, told The World last night that he had been out to the scene of the accident, and he minimized the affair. There is an excursion going to the park to-day, and Mr. Orr wished it stated that the approach to the wharf has been rendered perfectly safe. The company had intended repairing the platform, but, as their regular season did not open until the 10th instant, they had not been quite prepared. The wharf was perfectly secure, but this approach had been allowed to go too long without repair and renewal.

St. James' Square Church had their excursion to Oakville Saturday on the same boat, and the Navigation Company was severely criticized by Mr. Orr for allowing her to carry so many passengers. She was unable to take all of the people from Lorne Park in her return trip.

Only a Miracle.

Dr. T. H. Wylie, dentist, of 230 Dovercourt-road, who attended the injured in the park hotel and was present outside the gate at the time of the accident, expressed the opinion that the small number of hurt was due to nothing less than a miracle. He estimates that at least 300 people had been allowed to go thru the gates on to the wharf, and of them about 125 were precipitated into the water, mostly women and children. When the wharf sank down with its burden the five hundred people waiting outside the gate grew frantic, and it was exceedingly difficult to keep them from stampeding down to that part of the wharf which was still standing. Many women, separated from their children, fainted. Those who were in the water, however, kept remarkably cool, and as the depth was at no point more than five feet the taller ones were able to assist the children, who were passed along to land.

Ten women, who were more or less badly hurt, were taken to a neighboring hotel on stretchers.

Pier Had Been Condemned.

Dr. Wylie thought that Mrs. Butters was the only one who received any really dangerous injuries, her ankle having been sprained, and a blow on the back having caused serious internal injury. He thought that the authorities had made a very great mistake in allowing 300 people to get thru on the wharf at one time, when, according to the statements made to him by one of those in charge at the park, the wharf had been inspected, condemned, and lumber was already there to be used in the work of strengthening it, which was to begin on Tuesday. The break, he said, had been a clear case of some weakness in the wharf, as there had been no particular rush forward, and the boat had not yet touched at the pier.

How Stranded Ones Got Home.

After the accident, which happened at 8 p.m., there had been a general rush to secure some means of getting home, and about 150 people had obtained conveyances of all sorts from farmers, and driven seven miles to Long Branch, boarding the street cars there for Toronto. About two hundred had gone home on the boat after the accident, but there still remained about four hundred with no means of transportation. In making the first trip out the boat had grounded on a sand bar, and a rumor that the captain in charge had never been over the route before, had added so much to the general panic that these people refused to take the boat when it returned at midnight for the rest of the party. As there was neither telegraph nor 'phone at the park some of the men went to Port Credit and wired to Toronto for a special G.T.R. train, which arrived at about 1.30 a.m. Several night cars were on hand when they arrived at about a quarter past two, and the majority boarded them, Mrs. Butters alone having to be removed to her home in the ambulance.

YOUNG AND OLD FOLKS.

Pleasant to take, agreeable to the stomach, soothing and healing, Angier's Petroleum Emulsion is prescribed by physicians instead of cod-liver oil. It does all, and more, than cod-liver oil. The ideal medicine for children and enfeebled persons.

White Shirt Waists.

Suckling & Co. will sell, in lots to suit the trade, at their warerooms, 68 West Wellington-street, on Wednesday next, 800 dozens of Women's White and Colored Shirt Waists, all new goods, latest styles.

At the next meeting of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada in the Canadian Institute to-morrow night, Dr. C. A. Chant of Toronto University will give demonstrations in wireless telegraphy with a duplicate set of instruments, and Mr. Arthur Harvey, F.R.S.C., will speak on "The Rotation of the Sun."

EDUCATION CAUSES STRIKES.

Brings Workingmen to Believe in Their Rights as Men.

"Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye so to them," was the text from which the Rev. W. E. Gilroy derived his theme — "Religion and Wages" — at Broadview Congregational Church Sunday night. Workingmen in their present struggle for better conditions and the relationship they bore to the rest of the community was the burden of the discourse.

"The really difficult problem in life is to determine one's relationship to one's fellow man. That the inequalities of life are very great is evident. That many men do not get an equal chance, being born minus the many advantages inherited by their more fortunate brethren, and by conditions that prevail deter them from taking advantage of the opportunities of this world. It is also evident that we are dependent upon one another and that our actions affect the lives and destinies of other men. Man's environments are largely responsible for his actions thru life."

Strikes and dissatisfaction on the part of the laboring classes were the result of education as much as anything else. "The present wages are sufficient to live upon," the speaker said, "but not in the manner that educated minds are satisfied with. To keep body and soul together would require but very little. Perhaps nearly everyone alive could exist on less than they are now receiving, but that is not the feeling that should govern the employer." While not blaming all employers, Mr. Gilroy asserted that there were many who are taking advantage of their weaker brethren and enjoying the fruits of their labors, to the great loss and suffering of the weary toilers and their families. He did not wish to convey to his hearers that he was in sympathy with all labor disturbances, but he thought the movement in the main was justifiable, and probably the only manner in which employers of labor would be forced to recognize the right to live of those occupying the lower rungs on the social ladder.

WAIT ON CHAMBERLAIN.

He Will Not Give Consent to Canada's U.S. Reciprocity Plans.

Minneapolis, June 7. — W. W. Jermane, Washington correspondent of The Minneapolis Journal, writes that the opinion prevails in high official circles that the prospect for a meeting of the Joint High Commission is not so good as it was. Canada had great difficulty in obtaining Secretary Chamberlain's consent to reopen negotiations for another meeting of the Commission, and, when the British Embassy announced his consent, it was with an air that showed plainly how unwillingly it had been given.

Consent having been secured, the question of reassembling was taken up by Senator Fairbanks, with Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The first letter was written by Senator Fairbanks on Feb. 13, and it is stated that he has persistently tried to have Laurier fix a date, and that Laurier has persistently evaded the issue, and written to Fairbanks about trivial and irrelevant points in the controversy. The letters were laid before the State Department, and it was agreed that the Canadian government is not sincere in its surfaced approval of the reassembling of the Joint High Commission, and wants to co-operate with Secretary Chamberlain, in his efforts to bring the Mother Country and her colonies closer together, shutting out the rest of the world. At the same time, public sentiment in Canada is ready for the full announcement of such a policy.

Laurier is trying the patience of Senator Fairbanks and State Department officers, who are in earnest, and apparently wants to prevent action by having the Americans throw up the sponge in disgust.

The disposition in Washington is to have Laurier show his hand, and, if the negotiations fail, to have the world know it is Canada and not the United States that is responsible.

THREE THINGS TO CONSIDER,

In Talking Prohibition to M.L.A.'s, Says Rev. Mr. Pedley.

In spite of the bad weather, Rev. James W. Pedley had the Western Congregational Church crowded last night, when he preached on "Temperance and Politics." We all know, he said, that the present laws, well enforced, are better than an improved set of laws not so well enforced. The temperance societies have quietly dropped the moral suasion method (that of pledges) and started to cultivate the political side of the question.

There are three considerations to be thought of when a temperance man is talking to a member of the legislature. First, the member has to be convinced that there should be prohibition (not all are), altho, whether he is or not, he may have qualms for voting. Second, a member will always stand by his party and his leader, tho their minds may not follow along the same lines, but they all belong to the same party, and if one voted opposition in one vote, he would not be trusted to the same extent as he was before, and it gets noised around "that man turned traitor in the prohibition vote last year." He may be put up as an independent candidate for the next election, but he will be defeated easily; the public do not want "traitors" in the public offices. Third, the political game is a war, one leader against the other, and the man with the majority usually wins. If Hon. George W. Ross saw that the prohibitionists had a majority in the House, he would most certainly advocate their cause.

The prohibitionist of to-day must put men in as members only after they have pledged themselves to vote for the referendum, and, until they get a majority, and then Mr. Ross or Mr. Whitney, whoever is in power at that time, will see that it is to his advantage to put the bill thru, but until then, it might as well be laid on the shelf.

To Buy Ontario Cattle.

W. W. Hubbard of St. John, N. B., agricultural agent of the C. P. R., is in the city on a cattle-buying expedition. The people of New Brunswick do not raise stock cattle. Their energies are devoted to dairy stock. The aim of the C. P. R. is to get them to go into the fat cattle trade, and, to this end, Mr. Hubbard is in Ontario to buy pure-bred shorthorn cattle to start the industry in New Brunswick. Since Christmas he has shipped 45 head east, and within 10 days hopes to ship a carload or two more. He is visiting the different herds in Ontario, and expects a deputation from New Brunswick to be here next week to do the buying. There are several small packing houses in the Maritime Province, but not enough stock is raised to keep them going. The New Brunswick farmer has raised cereals and dairy products for these long years, but is now awakening to the fact that his proximity to an ocean port would make the fat cattle trade a paying one for him.

FIRE RECORD.

At 11.46 p.m., box 21, fire at 69 Yonge-street, cause, gas jet burnt a hole in floor, damage $5.

Circus Employe Hurt.

James E. League, an employe of the Ringling Bros.' Circus, was taken to the Emergency Hospital yesterday forenoon, suffering from a broken ankle bone, caused by the wheel of a wagon slipping and passing over the foot.

ATTACK ASTOUNDS THEM.

Methodist Ministers Do Not Second Mr. Caswell's Attack on Victoria.

The most profound amazement has been excited amongst the Methodist clergy of Toronto by the attack directed against Victoria College by Rev. W. B. Caswell of Hamilton. The professors in charge of the Department of Homiletics and the English Bible are regarded as exceptionally capable men.

"If Mr. Caswell wasted his time at Victoria College, it was most likely his own fault," said one reverend gentleman yesterday.

"We are all the time giving quiet digs to the college," said another, "but we don't mean anything."

"It is hard to satisfy everyone," said a third, "and there may be some who may not agree with the methods in vogue."

The fact that "quiet digs" are occasionally made, and that they are felt by the faculty, was brought out at last Thursday evening's meeting of the Toronto Conference. Prof. Wallace made an earnest plea for the sympathy and prayers of clergy for the faculty, whom he represented as between the devil and the deep sea. They were in danger of either falling behind the times, or of becoming coldly intellectual at the expense of their spiritual warmth. He intimated that the sympathy was not always as freely extended a sit might be.

Rev. Mr. Caswell, at the Brantford conference on Saturday, said: "He declared that he hung his head with shame when he thought of the conditions now existing in the Departments of Homiletics and English Bible study. He considered the time he had spent in the department as wasted. There were Bible training schools which did more for theological students than did Victoria University."

COD LIVER OIL SCARCE.

Failure of Norway Catch Sends Price Up in England.

London, June 7.—Owing to the failure of the fishery catch on the coast of Norway the price of the best cod liver oil has risen enormously. Eight gallons now cost 25 shillings. A year ago the same quantity could have been bought for 5 shillings or less. It is stated that several London hospitals now decline to supply their patients with the genuine article, and it is rumored that inferior substitutes, such as shark oil, are employed. The failure of the supply is due less to a scarcity of the fish than to the condition they are in when caught, with their shrunken livers yielding merely a fraction of the normal amount of oil. It is thought this has been caused by the failure of their food supply and the attack on them by seals.

SEVEN NEW MINISTERS.

Ordination Service at Elm-St. Church Before Large Congregation.

Sunday morning's congregation taxed the capacity of Elm-street Methodist Church to the utmost. At this service, conducted by Rev. J. Odery, Rev. Prof. Wallace and ex-President J. Allen, M. A., seven young men were received into full connection with the church and ordained to the ministry. They were E. M. Burwash, F. L. Farewell, Ed. Baker, H. E. Wellwood, Alfred A. Wall, D. Bruce Kennedy and C. E. Kenney. The last named was ordained for special purposes, tho not yet received as a minister.

The sermon, preached by Rev. James Allen, was from Cor. xvi, 13, "Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit ye like men, be strong." An interesting comparison was made between the present condition of new, and that of Old Ontario, 80 years ago. The speaker intimated that the same heroic devotion which characterized the pioneer preachers in this southern country in the old days, now characterized the young ministers of the north.

The ordination was performed by the president of conference, Rev. J. A. Rankin, with the assistance of the senior ministers, Rev. Chancellor Burwash, Rev. Dr. Potts, Rev. Dr. George Young, Rev. Dr. Blackstock, Rev. N. W. Wellwood, Rev. Dr. Parker.

LOSS OF LIFE GROWS.

Columbia, S.C., June 7.—Tho the great flood of water is passing on to the ocean laden with debris of every description and the swollen streams are subsiding in the Piedmont region, the losses of life and property are increasing, and a conservative estimate to-night places the number of dead at 80. At Clinton alone 100 operatives are missing from the village. During to-day dead bodies were washed ashore here and there, and occasionally a dismembered limb would float to the banks.

TORN BY HOUNDS.

Cincinnati, June 7.—John Fisgus, aged 15 years, was fatally hurt to-day by a kennel of 25 hounds. As he was approaching the kennel of Julius Ernst, the hounds seized him and tore him almost to pieces. Mrs. Ernst was seriously hurt in trying to rescue the boy. Finally Charles Fissel mounted a horse and undertook to ride over the dogs. Both rider and horse were seriously bitten, especially the latter.

That Fires May Cease.

Montreal, June 7. — In accordance with instructions from Archbishop Bruchesi, prayers were offered in all the Roman Catholic Churches of the archdiocese to-day, that the drought and forest fires may cease. His Grace also recommends processions in public and special prayers in all religious communities and in private families. The drought has now lasted since April 7, with the exception of a few light showers.

Would Prohibit Phosphorus.

Berlin, June 7.—The International Chemical Congress adopted a resolution favoring an international agreement prohibiting the use of phosphorus in making matches and requesting the International Committee appointed at Paris in 1900 to communicate the resolution to the various cabinets.

Lasting Obligation To Dr. Chase

For the Cure of Indigestion, Liver and Kidney Derangements—Splendid Effects of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mrs. James Griffiths, Geneva-street South, St. Catharines, writes: "It gives me great pleasure to speak in commendation of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. For some years prior to the spring of 1900 I was afflicted with serious derangements of the digestive functions, and liver and kidney disorders. I tried many remedies, without the desired results, until I began the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. After taking a few boxes of this medicine, I was again enjoying all my former health and vigor, and, in fact, feeling better than for ten years. Other members of our family have also received the best results from the use of this medicine, and I shall always consider myself under lasting obligation to Dr. Chase for what it has done for me and mine."

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose, 25 cents a box, at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. To protect you against imitations, the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box of his remedies.

HEINTZMAN & CO. ...PIANO...

The greatest of women piano players has this to say of this famous instrument:

"I am delighted with the Heintzman & Co. piano which I am playing upon throughout Madame Albani's tour in Canada. I find the singing quality especially beautiful and the touch wonderfully light and crisp. It is a pleasure for me to play on this instrument, and I think Canada is very fortunate."—Adela Verne.

Sporting Editor World: In regard to the Eastern-Capital game at Bayside Park on Saturday, I wish to state that it is an impossibility for any team to beat the Easterns on Bayside Park, judging by the way my team was treated Saturday. We generally make it a point to play ball in a clean, gentlemanly way, but we were disagreeably surprised when the Easterns started right in with tactics that would put Buckenburger to shame. On behalf of the Capitals, I hereby challenge the Eastern Club to a game to be played on neutral grounds on July 1 for a trophy worth not less than $25. If they do not accept this I will accept the conclusion that the superiority of my team is acknowledged. Albert Graham, manager Young Capital B.B.C., Ketchum Park.

President Jess Applegath left last night for New York to attend the Eastern League meeting.
